“OTHER” CRUCIFIXIONS

BY: BILL JACKSON

Speak of crucifixion, and we immediately have our minds on the death of our Lord, and that's as it should be. However, the New Testament speaks of some “other” crucifixions. In our obedience to the gospel, the old man of sin, now dying, is said to be “crucified” (Romans 6:6). One who turns from the truth, and now is in the hardening processes of sin is said to be “crucifying the Son of God afresh” (Hebrews 6:6). But we especially now speak of Galatians 6:14, where Paul refers to the proper place of glorying, and in focusing on the Christ, he says, “By whom the world is crucified unto me, and I unto the world.” Two “crucifixions” here: The world is crucified to the child of God, and the child of God is crucified unto the world.

In Romans 6:11, the apostle sets forth a mark in attitude that should now possess the Christian: Dead unto sin, but alive unto God. This is the idea in Galatians 6:14. Now, in obedience to God, the death taken place in obedience is a death “to the world,” and its appeals, lusts, enticements. The Christian will not now let the world attract him. The Christian does not now live in that sphere! Indeed, the command now is this: “If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above.....set your affections on things above, not on things on the earth” (Colossians 3:1, 2). The command is there, but the action must be taken by the individual, for there is no automatic work going on here. In fact, all of Christian living and Christian attitude involves the individual at work!

NEWS

- We welcome you! Let us be thankful for Christ's Resurrection every first day of the week by assembling with the Saints to worship (Acts 20:7). We are no where commanded to be thankful for His Resurrection only one day out of the year called "Easter," but rather let us worship our God on the first day of every week and remember the Great Sacrifice of our Savior (I Corinthians 1:23-29). Let us thank God every day for the Death, Burial, and Resurrection of His Son.
- Dibrell church of Christ Gospel Meeting, this Friday through next Sunday at 7:00 nightly; Speaker: Stan Stevenson
- Thanks to all who came and helped at the Egg Hunt and Breakfast yesterday. We had a great time of fellowship.
- Check out the church website at www.campaignchurchofchrist.org
- The truck from Tennessee Children's Home plans to be here on May 5, 2015, if the Lord permits. This week's pantry items suggested are: fabric softener sheets and toilet paper.
- The men of the congregation who are willing are asked to plan to lead some songs tonight during the “Singing Night.”
- Happy Birthday to Dorothy Mayfield, who will celebrate this Tuesday, April 7, if the Lord wills.
