“WONDERFUL STOREHOUSE”

BY: FRANK L. COX

For when for the time ye ought to be teachers, ye have need that one teach you again which be the first principles of the oracles of God; and are become such as have need of milk, and not of strong meat (Heb. 5:12).

The New Testament contains a wonderful store of information and is arranged as to give information to all. It is food for the soul. It contains milk for babes and strong meat for those more advanced in the Christian life. No other book so completely fits the needs of humanity. When we obey the Gospel—the primary commands—we are babes in Christ and naturally need “the sincere milk of the word,” but we should not be babes always. We should grow up “into him”—the likeness of the Lord—and eventually become strong enough to digest stronger food. This growth cannot take place in a day or a year, but by diligent application and careful study over time. There is no reason why we should not become strong workers in the vineyard of the Lord.
