“A Friendly Church Seeking to Edify Each Other
as We Shine as Lights unto the World”

Serving Since 1923

“For the LORD knoweth the way of the righteous:
but the way of the ungodly shall perish
(Psalm 1:6).”

“SETTING PRIORITIES” BY: BOBBY O’DELL

Christ showed the need for setting proper priorities when He said, “But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you” (Mat. 6:33). Since it is so easy to let ourselves put first things last and last things first, following are some guidelines from Philippians 3 to setting proper priorities.

Rejoice in the right things (v. 1). One of these right things is being in a proper relationship with the Lord—“in Christ.” Another right thing is the proper reaction that comes from this relationship—“rejoice.” In an ungodly world which so often places priorities on the wrong things let us remember to “rejoice in the Lord”!

Remember who is not on your side (v. 2). In Paul’s time, some called Judaizers were teaching it was necessary to obey the old law. Paul called such teachers “evil workers” because they drew men away from the truth. If we are ever going to put Christ first in our lives we must “beware” of the enemies of truth.

Realize what is true (v. 3). One way to put our priorities in proper order is to become well acquainted with what is true. Three of these important matters of truth are to: revere God in spirit, rejoice in Christ, and remove our confidence in the flesh.

Rely only on Christ (vv. 4-7). Here Paul shows that it is futile to trust in any of our physical greatness to provide us with salvation. If trusting in the flesh could have provided salvation for anyone it would have been Paul. He was of proper nationality—“Israel.” He came from a prominent family—“tribe of Benjamin.” He was proud religiously—“a Pharisee.” And he was prompt in his activity—“zeal.” However, as great as those things were in men’s eyes, Paul shows the proper priority by saying, “But what things were gain to me, those I counted loss for Christ” (Phi. 3:7). Until we truly rely only on Christ our priorities cannot be in the proper order

BIBLE SCHOOL CORNER

Sunday Morning Elementary Class Report

Sister Patsy Rowland teaches this class. She reports that this class is studying about “Do’s and Don’t’s from Paul.” In these lessons, she is teaching her students about the topic of love. She is teaching the children to be happy with what they have. Also, she is teaching them to learn how to be kind and how to treat others.
