“GOD’S COMMANDS ARE
KNOWABLE AND DOABLE
(DEUTERONOMY 30:11-14)”

BY: DARRELL CONLEY

"For this commandment which I command thee this day, it is not too hard for thee, neither is it far off" (v. 11). Moses makes plain that the commands he has given them are neither too hard to do nor too hard to understand. The same is true for the gospel. Paul quotes from Deuteronomy 30:11-14 in describing the gospel: "But what saith it? The word is nigh thee, in thy mouth, and in thy heart; that is the word of faith, which we preach" (Romans 8:8). The silly notion that no one can know for sure what God's will is, is a modern idea. It is certainly not biblical. "Ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free" (John 8:32). And hereby we know that we know him, if we keep his commandments" (1 John 2:3). Such skeptics should be required to read and mark the claims to knowledge that John makes in his first epistle.

There seem also to be among us some who think that the commands of God are so difficult to know and to do that we live in a constant state of sin. Yet John says, "For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments: and his commandments are not grievous" (1 John 5:3). There are some who consider the commandments of God so grievous that they deny that we are under any law at all. But if we are not under any law, then we could never sin, since sin is the transgression of the law (Romans 5:13). And if we cannot sin, then there is no need for the grace of God. The very fact that we are under grace implies that we are under some law, or we would have no need of grace.

BIBLE SCHOOL CORNER

We encourage each one to be a part of a Bible Class. Taking part in the study of God's Word in a Bible class allows you to learn from a teacher who has prepared to teach you from the Word of God. You also are able to learn from the other participants in the class as comments are made.

Last week, the "Bible School Corner" featured the Wednesday Night Teenage Bible Study Class. This week, this article will focus on the Sunday Morning Teenage Bible Study Class. This class is taught by brother Kevin Rowland.

Words from Kevin Rowland,

Sunday Morning Teenage Bible Class Teacher

Brother Rowland reports that his class has been engaged in a study of prayer and that they have recently been examining a parable. Studying about these subjects are very important. Thanks to brother Rowland for teaching them!
