“PAUL’S BUNDLE OF STICKS”

BY: NEAL POLLARD

In Acts 28, after Paul and his shipmates survived a shipwreck and landed on Malta, the stranded passengers found themselves cold and wet in a strange place. The natives, however, were friendly and built a fire for them all (Acts 28:2). It is interesting that Paul “gathered a bundle of sticks and laid them on the fire” (3). This was when Paul was bitten by an apparently deadly viper. Somehow, in reading this part of Paul’s journey to Rome, I overlooked a fundamental fact that helped make Paul great.

Paul did his part. When the others had built that fire, Paul was not content to let the others do it all. He did his share. Not only that, he did his share even at great, personal cost. He did his share, though he might have rationalized that he had already done so much and been through so much. Paul noted their unusual kindness and was made to feel very welcome, and he showed his appreciation in a tangible way.

You may be a busy, active servant of God. You may have done much in the past for the cause of Christ. Yet, think about how notable it is and inspiring to others, when you gather your own bundle of sticks to help the fire others have started. It may be noted and remembered long after you are gone.

“And the barbarous people shewed us no little kindness: for they kindled a fire, and received us every one, because of the present rain, and because of the cold. And when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks, and laid them on the fire, there came a viper out of the heat, and fastened on his hand (Acts 28:2-3).”

BIBLE SCHOOL CORNER

Studying the Word of God is one of the greatest things that we can do in this life. Allowing God to communicate us through His Holy Writ is important. It requires that we open our hearts to His Word. We not only must open our hearts to His Word by taking in His Word, but we must also apply His Word to our lives, so that we can be pleasing in the sight of our Wonderful Creator.

We highly encourage you to take part in a Bible class here at Campaign. There are classes for all ages. This week in the “Bible School Corner,” we will focus on the Sunday Morning Intermediate Bible Class.

Words from Lori Rowland,
