“NECESSITY OF THE CROSS”

BY: CHARLES BOX

In the book of Romans Paul shows the necessity of the cross. He establishes the following truths: (1) the gospel is God’s power unto salvation (Rom. 1:16), (2) the need for salvation is universal (Rom. 3:10), (3) salvation is by the blood of Jesus (Rom. 3:25), (4) both Jew and Gentile need the cross (Rom. 3:29), and (5) Christ died that He might be “Lord.” Romans 5:8-11 is a profound section of scripture dealing with the cross. It shows that the cross is the:

The manifestation of God’s love: That God demonstrated His love for man is best seen as Jesus died as a sacrifice for sin (Heb.2:9). Jesus’ substitutionary death for our sins is the greatest fact of history. Nothing shows God’s love, good will or benevolence for mankind more than the cross.

The means of justification: Paul powerfully states that we are justified by Christ’s blood (Rom.5:9). The only grounds for man’s justification is Jesus’ death (Acts 13:38). Jesus knew no sin but He was made sin on our behalf that we might have God’s righteousness (2Cor.5:21).

The motivation for reconciliation: Reconciliation to God is through the death of Jesus (Rom.5:10). Sin separates man from God (Isa.59:1-2). Man is returned to God’s favor through the cross of Christ. Because of the cross Christians can cry out to a lost world (2 Cor. 5:20).

Repentance and baptism are man’s response to God’s offer of salvation by the blood of Christ (Acts 2:36-38). Do you see God’s love at the cross? Do you recognize the cross as the only means of justification? Have you been motivated by the cross to be reconciled to God? If the cross will not move you, nothing will!
