“WORKING FOR PEACE IN THE WORLD!”

BY: JASON GANN

I have been thinking a lot about peace in the world. This thought was sparked in my mind as a result of what I witnessed on the television on December 18 in that part of the world known as Iraq. I watched on the television of how the last troops from the United States were leaving Iraq, as reported by certain reporters. The Iraqi War was history.

I knew that as I watched those United States soldiers cross the Iraqi border into the safer confines of Kuwait, as I now reflect back, I could tell that they were happy to be in Kuwait and I am sure that their families were overjoyed by the thought of them being out of the land that was a war zone for so many years.

Obtaining peace is certainly a desire that we should have for this world. We are thankful to all of those soldiers who have given their lives to defend our nation against attacks from evil and to help defend other nations against attacks from evil forces. We are thankful to God for what He has done in helping these soldiers. There are times when our nation has been involved in defending itself in wars. Our desire should be for right to prevail in just causes and that peace would be gained in the world. Jesus says in John 16:33, “These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.” There is nothing more comforting than the Word of God. By listening to the Words of Jesus, our soul finds peace. Peace is not to be found in the world and while I am thankful that the Iraq War has ended, I realize that our country still has troops in Afghanistan. We should hope and pray for wars to end. One war will continue to the Judgment Day and that is the war against evil and so we are always in need of fighting the good fight of faith. Great comfort though should be taken from knowing that our Savior overcame the world and we can too. Overcoming the world involves us relying on God’s Word and keeping it, which leads to peace (Proverbs 3:1-2).

Matthew 5:9 says, “Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God.” Let us work for peace, while never compromising God’s Word. Let us thank God for the ending of the Iraqi War and let us pray that our troops in Afghanistan will all be home soon too. Let us remember to pray for the safety of the troops who remain in Afghanistan. Let us work for peace in the world!

BIBLE SCHOOL CORNER

Words from Jason Gann.

Wednesday Night Adult Bible Class Teacher

It is time for the “Bible School Corner.” Last week, we began to study Genesis Chapter 11. We studied about how that man acted in open rebellion against God by seeking to build the Tower of Babel. Now, it is clear as we studied last Wednesday that there were problems with building this tower, such as the problem of pride in the people, their refusal to obey God and fill the earth, and their substituting man for God in worship. God thus confounded their languages and so the earth went from having one language to many. If we fail to submit to God, we too will be punished. We can learn from those in Babel, not to rebel against God, but to submit to Him (James 4:7).

Also, last Wednesday, we studied about the family tree of Shem. Lord willing, this Wednesday we will begin to study about the life of Abram, who later came to be called “Abraham.” Please join us for our study!
