“HAVING ‘I’S’ ON THE DAY OF THE LORD”

BY: NEAL POLLARD

The Thessalonians had a misunderstanding about the day of the Lord as it related to their dead loved ones. Paul moved by the Holy Spirit, set the record straight for these Christians. As he helps them with their struggle, he gives the faithful great heavenly perspective to help them along.

- INFORMATION—Paul helps them overcome ignorance concerning their dead loved ones and the Day of the Lord (13). The information should alleviate suffering and instead bring hope. So many are improperly informed about the Day of the Lord. Information brings proper perspective.
- INVITING—Our belief in the resurrection of Christ and the power involved in it to raise the dead in Him makes the prospect of the Day of the Lord more attractive (14-15). What Paul says about that day for the living and the dead makes it something for which the spiritual mind should long.
- INCREDIBLE—The description of the details of that day are amazing (16-17). We can try and imagine it, but what we experience goes far beyond that. Yet, these images do not frighten us. They are an assurance to us.
- INSPIRATIONAL—The net effect of Paul’s words in this paragraph is “comfort” (18). Contemplating how that Day will be for the saved makes us long for it. We are not living for here and now. We live now for that endless Day!

BIBLE SCHOOL CORNER

Words from Jason Gann,
Wednesday Night Adult Bible Class Teacher

We are studying the great book of Exodus. The Israelites have left Egypt, walking on dry ground through the midst of the Red Sea. Come and study with us as we study more!

NEWS

- Let us praise our Wonderful God!
- Thanks to everyone who helped to make the 2013 Gospel Meeting such a success! Thanks to brother Hill for preaching powerful lessons. Thanks to Kevin Rowland, Greg Rowland, and Pate Hill for leading the songs. Thanks to those who prepared food on Sunday morning and those who provided meals for the Gospel Meeting speaker the other nights. Thanks to each person who invited someone and for each visitor who came. The attendance was great! We had people visit from several congregations in Warren County. We also had some visitors from congregations outside of this county. Let us pray that this Gospel Meeting will serve to encourage us to grow more for the Lord, so that we can be pleasing unto Him and reach our Ultimate Goal of going to Heaven!
- Thanks to all who helped to support the Tennessee Children’s Home. A representative from there came by this past Thursday and received items.
- Teachers of the youth Bible classes are asked to submit to brother Jason Gann the “Perfect Attendance Lists” for the month of October, this Wednesday, October 30.
- Help us to restock the Pantry. This week’s pantry item is Vienna Sausage. Any items are accepted, and the weekly pantry items are listed here for those who desire to know suggestions.
- The monthly men’s business meeting will be held this coming Sunday, November 3, if the Lord permits. All faithful Christian men of the congregation are asked to plan to attend.
- Happy Birthday to Julie King, who celebrates her birthday next Sunday, November 3!
