“A Friendly Church Seeking to Edify Each Other
as We Shine as Lights unto the World”

Serving Since 1923

“Wherefore thou art great, O LORD God: for there is none like thee, neither is there any God beside thee, according to all that we have heard with our ears (II Samuel 7:22).”

“LOYALTY OF A FRIEND”

BY: NEIL RICHEY

A good synonym for the word loyal is faithful. So, loyalty is the art of being faithful. It could include faithfulness to an idea, custom, duty, or a person. Douglas MacArthur made this line famous when he said, “In the evening of my memory I come back to West Point. Always there echoes and re-echoes: duty, honor, country.” Philip Armour said, “There is one element that is worth its weight in gold and that is loyalty. It will cover a multitude of weaknesses.”

When speaking of loyalty, my Lord said, “No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon” (Mt. 6:24).

The Proverbs writer had this to say about loyalty: “Ointment and perfume rejoice the heart: so doth the sweetness of a man’s friend by hearty counsel. Thine own friend, and thy father’s friend, forsake not; neither go into thy brother’s house in the day of thy calamity: for better is a neighbour that is near than a brother far off” (Prov. 27:9-10). I like that little expression, “forsake not.” It means not to allow yourself to relinquish or to loosen the tight bond you share.

Notice how Samuel illustrates this point when he says, “And it came to pass, when he had made an end of speaking unto Saul, that the soul of Jonathan was knit with the soul of David, and Jonathan loved him as his own soul” (1 Sam. 18:1).

Do you want to have a great friendship? Then you have to be loyal.

I hope you have a great day!

BIBLE SCHOOL CORNER

“Hungering for God’s Word”

Jesus says in John 6:63, “It is the spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life.” Let us hunger for the Word of God!
