“BEING SATISFIED WITH SO LITTLE” PART 1

BY: BILL JACKSON

Those obedient to the Lord's will are those who have, and who continue to cultivate, a spiritual appetite. Beginning as the babes they are in Christ, they have a desire for the milk of the word that they may thereby grow (1 Peter 2:2). All of their life becomes, then, a hungering and thirsting after righteousness (Matt. 5:6), and never do they cease in their hunger or desire for the things of God. Their desire is for more and more and more -- more knowledge, more zeal, more faithfulness, more prayer, more study, more giving -- always, more and more of God's things.

In view of those things, it is amazing in our time that so many are satisfied with so little of the things of importance. We have concern with these areas:

1) So many are satisfied with so little study and so little acquisition of Bible knowledge. Jerusalem continued steadfastly in doctrine (Acts 2:42) and the noble Bereans are an example of those who give time to study DAILY (Acts 17:11). But so many are satisfied with so little today. And thus they are not informed and thereby armed when false teachers and false teaching faces them. Without knowledge the people perish (Hosea 4:6). An informed people become a strong people, and thus they can stand faithfully for God and against all error. If they are satisfied with very little Bible information, they will also be satisfied to embrace and live with error.

2) So many satisfied with so little Bible preaching. The New Testament emphasis is on PREACHING THE WORD (2 Tim. 4:2) -- yea, the whole counsel of God (Acts 20:27). How can the preacher be satisfied with polite little essays with little or no Bible content? And how can the people in our congregations be satisfied with so little Bible in the sermons presented before them? One would think that those in the pews would be DEMANDING Biblical content! Satisfied with so little!

3) So many satisfied with so little Biblical oversight. To be sure, there is a great deal of attention paid to the finances and business concerns, but what of overseeing the flock in the watching for souls (Heb. 13:17) -- in guarding, protecting, feeding, etc.? How can so many called elders be content with so little effort on their part in studying, being informed as to dangers, guarding and protecting the flock? How can so many in the congregations be satisfied with so little Biblical oversight?

[Note: This article will be continued in the next bulletin, if the Lord permits.]

BIBLE SCHOOL CORNER

Sunday Morning Adult Bible Class

Brother Steve Mayfield teaches our Adult Bible Class for the congregation on Sunday morning. Throughout this quarter, he has taught an excellent study on “The Gospel of John.” Recently, we have studied about the Crucifixion of Jesus. If the Lord permits, this Sunday morning, we still study about the “Resurrection of Jesus.” The whole system of salvation is based upon the resurrection of our Lord and Christ.

If the Lord permits, we will begin a new study next Sunday.
