“HERE IS WHAT YOU CAN DO”

BY: JIMMY FERGUSON

Congregations grow, (spiritually and numerically), because of a working membership. Do not misunderstand! Although God gives the increase, there must be the planting and watering (I Corinthians 3:6). I Corinthians 3:6 says, “I have planted, Apollos watered; but God gave the increase.”

When the membership works together with God, great things will happen (I Corinthians 3:9). I Corinthians 3:9 says, “For we are labourers together with God: ye are God's husbandry, ye are God's building.”

The body of Christ is made up of different members with different functions or abilities (I Corinthians 12). Each of us should locate the areas of service where we can be useful and then begin to serve.

If you have wondered, “What can I do?” consider the following:

- When it is announced that someone is sick, send them a card and, if possible, visit them in the hospital or at home.
- When it is announced that someone has lost a relative, send them a card expressing your sympathy and let them know that they are in your prayers.
- When we have visitors to our services, make a point to meet them and introduce yourself to them. Show them to the classes. Ask them if they would like to sit with you and invite them to return.
- Get a list of our visitors, and send them a card expressing your appreciation for their visit.
- When someone is baptized, visit them and encourage them.
- Offer to help with teenager activities or with some other activity of the church.
- Invite a non-Christian relative or friend to services.
- When a brother or sister is absent from the assembly, call them and find out why? Let them know you missed them and offer to help.
- Send a note to a delinquent member of the church expressing your love and concern. Or, better yet, call them or visit them and encourage them.
- Speak words of encouragement to the elders and let them know you appreciate them and the work they do.
- “Exhort (encourage) one another (Hebrews 3:13).”

BIBLE SCHOOL CORNER

Paul says to Timothy by the inspiration of the Holy Spirit in I Timothy 3:14-15, “These things write I unto thee, hoping to come unto thee shortly: But if I tarry long, that thou mayest know how thou oughtest to behave thyself in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth.” We can certainly apply what we read in I Timothy to the church today, so that we will know how to behave in the church, which is the pillar and ground of the truth.

In being the pillar and ground of the truth, the Campaign church of Christ has a great Bible School program. This program of teaching is just one of the many programs that is being used to help ensure that the Campaign church of Christ is and will remain the pillar and ground of the truth (I Timothy 3:15). We believe that the educational program should be emphasized, because of its importance in ensuring this. We invite you to attend class!
