“WHAT IS FAITH?”

BY: DAVID B. SMITH

A small number of false religious concepts can be traced to some basic misunderstanding or disregard for the true nature of “faith.” Many believe that faith is “blind” or that faith should be perceived as a “leap in the dark.” Of course, this is formulated upon another basic misunderstanding -- that the Bible cannot be understood alike by all men. As a result, people are regularly guilty of defining faith as simply that which they believe (regardless of whether that item is Biblically true or false). But, faith is not “blind” and no step made on the basis of faith is a “leap in the dark.”

The Sacred Text is clear that Biblical faith is derived on the basis of the word of God (Rom. 10:17). Romans 10:17 says, “So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.” And, coupled with other passages (e.g., John 8:32; 1 Thess. 5:21), evidence, discernment and knowledge are all fundamental components of faith. John 8:32 says, “And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.” 1 Thessalonians 5:21 says, “Prove all things; hold fast that which is good.” No man can have faith without first having evidence of what is true, but, man must also exercise his own mental faculties and make the correct discernment from the available evidence and then act accordingly. Hence, one cannot have Biblical faith in something that the Bible does not teach or authorize.

And, still, faith is manifested by the appropriate response to the Word of God (James 2:14-26). “Work” or “obedience” is essentially connected to faith, since James writes of demons to show that some do possess inadequate belief, but that such is not real faith (James 2:19). James 2:19 says, “Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well: the devils also believe, and tremble.” Obviously, faith alone cannot save (James 2:24). James 2:24 says, “Ye see then how that by works a man is justified, and not by faith only.” After all, who could profess faith in what God has said without performing what God has required? So, faith is more than “belief.” It is based upon the word of God, involves discernment and the acceptance of the evidence, is the firm conviction of what is true, and manifests itself in the appropriate response to what the Bible says is true.

BIBLE SCHOOL CORNER

Words from Jason Gann,

Wednesday Night Adult Class Teacher

We are continuing to study the great book of Genesis in the Wednesday Night Adult Bible Class. Last Wednesday we saw how that God told Abraham that Sodom and Gomorrah would be destroyed from Genesis Chapter 18.

From the Creation to Adam, Cain, Abel, the confusion of languages at the Tower of Babel, Noah, the Great Flood, Shem, Ham, Japheth, Abraham, and Ishmael, this coming Wednesday we will look back at what we have studied about these people and events along with others, if the Lord permits. We will review Chapters 1 through 17, about the first third of the book of Genesis, by going over the answers to the 30 questions about these Chapters from the “Genesis Worksheet I,” handed out last Wednesday. Come review with us what we have studied thus far!
