“WHAT ARE THE PRIORITIES IN THE HOME?”

BY: WENDELL WINKLER

1. When we are early to the game, but late for worship?
2. When we see our children do their homework but never check to see if Bible lessons are completed?
3. When they cannot stay up late on school nights lest it infringe upon their school work, but they can stay up and watch the “late show” on Saturday night, though they will be attending Bible school and worship the next morning?
4. We will not let them miss school even though they do not want to attend but we cater to their whims and let them miss Bible classes and worship?
5. We know the names of their public school teachers but we cannot call the names of all their Bible class teachers at church?
6. We will serve as home room mother or president of the P.T.A. at the public schools, but what about helping with a function in Bible classes?
7. We attend their public school open house, but not open house on the last day of V.B.S.?
8. We would never schedule vacations so as to make them miss public school, but what about V.B.S. and Gospel meetings?
9. They see us go to work even though we do not feel too well, but stay at home from church under the same circumstances?
10. They see us look and study their school work, but seldom pay any attention at all to their handwork brought home from Bible classes?

Yes with such situations prevailing, what priorities are being established in the hearts of our children? “Train up a child in the way he should go: and when he is old, he will not depart from it (Proverbs 22:6).”

“And, ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord” (Ephesians 6:4). We show what is important to us by what we do!

BIBLE SCHOOL CORNER

Ecclesiastes 12:13-14 says, “Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man. For God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil.” In these last two verses of the book of Ecclesiastes, Solomon writes by the inspiration of God, that life is all about fearing God and obeying His Word. It is never too early to start teaching young people about this. In the Bible Classes of the Campaign church of Christ, we teach our young people about life and how God wants us to live it.

Sunday Morning Teenage Bible Class

On Sunday morning, brother Kevin Rowland has recently been involved in a series on “prayer.” We are assured that many great points were made on this subject. We invite you to encourage another teenage you know to attend this Bible class!
