“BEING SATISFIED WITH SO LITTLE” PART 2

BY: BILL JACKSON

[Note: This article is continued from the last bulletin.]

What is of great concern is that in being satisfied with so little, we very soon lose sight of the need for what is already in short supply, and can thus “live without it.” In that turn of events, we then cease the study of the word entirely, cease either desiring or wanting the Word of God proclaimed to us, and cease to expect anything of our elders other than keeping the checkbook balanced! Learning to be satisfied with so little will finally, as we continue on that downward road, cause us to be satisfied with none of it!

May the day be hastened when our people become, once more, “a people of the Book.” May the day be hastened when our preachers are once more known as “talking Bibles.” And may the day be hastened when those appointed as elders are once more known as true shepherds, fully equipped to “exhort and convince the gainsayers” (Titus 1:9). If we had had more of those elders in these last several years, we would have fewer of the trends of liberalism in our midst. We are where we are because we have been satisfied with so little of the things of God. We'll not be what we should be until we once more develop that spiritual appetite that demands MORE, not LESS!

BIBLE SCHOOL CORNER

Words from Jason Gann.

Wednesday Night Adult Bible Class Teacher

In the Bible class on Wednesday night, we are studying the book of Genesis. We are currently studying Genesis Chapter 45. We studied last Wednesday about the great providence of God at work in Joseph's life to bring him into Egypt and to make him second in command over Egypt. God sent Joseph there to preserve the family of Jacob by ensuring there was food for the during the famine. Come and study with us on Wednesday as we study more about Joseph's life!
