“ABIDING IN THE LOVE OF CHRIST”

BY: CURTIS L. E. GRAVES

“As the Father hath loved me, so have I loved you: continue ye in my love” (John 15:9). We learn several things from this short verse. First of all is the well-known and obvious fact of the love of God for His only begotten Son. God is love we are told in 1 John 4:8 and 16. 1 John 4:8 says, “He that loveth not knoweth not God; for God is love.” 1 John 4:16 says, “And we have known and believed the love that God hath to us. God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him.” As the Father loves Him, so He loves His disciples. In these few words we have a pledge. A pledge of fellowship with Christ and God or oneness is what Christ prayed for in John 17:20-21: “Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall believe on me through their word; That they all may be one; as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us: that the world may believe that thou hast sent me.”

We also see in these words a promise. When we abide in Christ, then we will abide in His Word. In His Word is the promise of strength when we are weary, the promise of peace no matter what our surroundings may be, and many other promises.

The words can also be a warning. We see this warning in Peter failing to abide in the love of Christ resulting in his denial of Jesus. We also observe this when we look at Judas and his failure to abide in the love of Christ and, thus, denying Him. “If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned (John 15:6).”

Finally, we see in these words a command. “Keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life (Jude 21).” The Old Testament example of what happened to the Israelites when they fell from the love of God and rebelled against Him is a lesson for us today. Obedience is the key to abiding in the love of Christ. The proof of His love for us is the cross; the proof of our abiding in His love is our complete obedience to His will (1 John 1:7). 1 John 1:7 says, “But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin.”
