“A Friendly Church Seeking to Edify Each Other
as We Shine as Lights unto the World”

Serving Since 1923

“And he that keepeth his commandments dwelleth in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us (I John 3:24).”

“LIKE LEAVEN” BY: FRANK L. COX

“Another parable spake he unto them; The kingdom of heaven is like unto leaven, which a woman took, and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened (Matthew 13:33).” Jesus and the disciples were on the shore of the Sea of Galilee. He had spoken unto them the parable of the sower, of the tares, and of the mustard seed. Now, He speaks the little parable of the leaven.

“It is the property of leaven,” says J. W. McGarvey, “that it quietly but certainly diffuses itself through the mass in which it is placed.” The kingdom of heaven is like that, in that it spreads itself in like manner through human society. This parable is also prophetic and its fulfillment is constantly going on. The reason why three measures of meal are supposed, rather than any other number, is doubtless because this was the quantity that the women usually made up for one baking and the reason why a woman rather than a man is mentioned is because it was the business of the women to make bread.

1. The Master had said that a good life is like salt, i.e., a conservative influence (Matthew 5:13). His very presence in a community helps to preserve all that is good and wholesome in that community. By him the tendency to moral decay is arrested. How important it is for a wholesome person to remain wholesome!
2. He had said that a good life is like light, i.e., an aggressive influence (Matthew 5:14-16). From his personality, goodness, and intelligence emanate. He is a great worker for God, and his works are light. Since light is such a powerful thing, it should not be concealed.
3. And now He teaches that a good life is like leaven, i.e., a silent, an unseen, an irresistible influence that slowly but surely permeates the sum of society. By his speech and manner of life the Christian purifies and ennobles the people around him.

BIBLE SCHOOL CORNER

Let us not forget about Bible class! It is important. There is no greater Book that we can study from than the Holy Bible! Be sure to be here with us for Bible class!

Let us keep the song, “Give Me the Bible” in our hearts each day. Be sure that we not only study in the Bible Class, but also in our private lives, too!

NEWS

- Thank you for being here!
- Our hearts were made to rejoice last Sunday, April 14, 2013 as Kristi Bost, Charles Gann, and Jason Gann rededicated their lives to the Lord as they repented and confessed their sins.
- Sympathy is extended to the family of Shirley Gann, a loving wife, loving mother, loving grandmother, loving mother-in-law, and loving sister in Christ. She was the wife of Charles Gann. She is also the mother of Jason Gann and Kristi Bost. She was a faithful member of this congregation. She passed away from this life on Tuesday, April 16 and her funeral service was yesterday, April 20. This faithful Christian in every way has gone to her reward in Paradise. Please pray for the family to have comfort during this very challenging time.
- A representative from Tennessee Children’s Home will be here to pick up supplies on April 23. Here are all of the items being requested. The pantry items are: 100% bottled apple, orange, and grape juice; pop-tarts; Ritz crackers; green beans; corn; vegetable oil; honey and syrup, decaffeinated tea bags, brownie mix, Spray-N-Wash, fabric softener; dish soap; and antibacterial kitchen and bath-room cleaners.
