“And the LORD said unto Moses, Whosoever hath sinned against me, him will I blot out of my book (Exodus 32:33).”

YOUR LIFE IS AN OPEN BOOK.

BY: JOHN W. MOORE

Many of our “modern” axioms are not modern. In fact there are many cliches and “sayings” that originate from the Bible. The axiom, “Your life is an open book,” is nothing more than a rephrasing of II Corinthians 3:2: “You are our epistle written in our hearts, known and read of all men.” Truly no axiom could be as thought-provoking in aiding each of us in self-examination.

Upon contemplation of this metaphorical way to view self, one must consider what is read by others, by oneself, and especially by God about our lives.

For example:

- Do others read of good things or evil?
- Do others understand the purpose of your “book”?
- Is your “book” a reflection of Christ?
- Is Christ the Author of your “book”?
- Would others view your “book” as fictitious, or real and genuine?
- Is your “book” filled with lies, distortion, and slander, or with truth, honesty and love?
- What chapters of your “book” do you wish you could change or relive?
- What would be said in the final chapter of your “book”?
- Finally, is your story written in in the Book of all books—the Book of Life? Revelation 20:15 says, “And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire.”

Indeed our book is like an open book, and often we are the only spiritual book this careless world will ever read. Thus, may we endeavor to write in our books the story and life of Jesus.

NEWS

- Let us praise our God. Praise Him! Praise Him!
- The men of the congregation who are willing are asked to plan to lead some songs tonight during the “Singing Night.”
- Following the worship service this evening, we will enjoy a fellowship meal with the theme of Mexican food. Please plan on being here tonight to enjoy the “Mexican Feast.”
- Check out the website of the Campaign church of Christ at www.campaignchurchofchrist.org. Also, tell others about the website!
- A representative from Tennessee Children’s Home came last week to pick up the supplies that we have gathered in our pantry. Thanks to all of those who have brought items. These will go toward helping the fatherless there. The pantry also helps others who are in need. Help us to build up our pantry again!
- This week’s pantry item is yams.
- The monthly men’s business meeting will be held at 5:30 today. All faithful Christian men of the congregation are asked to attend.
- Happy Birthday to LaTonya Morris, who celebrates on Wednesday, May 9!
- Happy Birthday to Jessie Biles, who celebrates on Monday, May 14!
