“CHRISTIAN CHARACTERISTICS”

BY: DANNY BOX

In 1 Corinthians 16:13-14, Paul wrote these words, “Watch ye, stand fast in the faith, quit you like men, be strong. Let all your things be done with charity.” Contained in these two verses are five characteristics that all of us as Christians are to possess. Look with me at these.

First the Christian is to “Watch.” That is to be alert and on guard. There are several things that we need to watch. We must watch our mouths (Psalm 141:3). We must watch our actions (I Timothy 4:12). We must watch our thoughts (Philippians 4:8). In fact as a Christian we must watch ourselves in all things (II Timothy 4:5). If we watch ourselves we will be able to avoid temptation (I Corinthians 10:13).

Next the Christian is to “Stand fast.” As a child of God we are to have strong convictions (Hebrews 3:14). We must not bend or break in matters of faith, nor can we compromise in any way. We must stand on the rock solid foundation of Jesus Christ and Him crucified.

Then we are to “Quit” like men. This simply means to behave as grown men. We must have courage (II Samuels 10:12), and we must have wisdom (Isaiah 46:8). We must put away childish things lest we be moved (Ephesians 4:13-14). The only way that we can be useful in the service of the Lord is if we behave ourselves as men (Hebrews 5:14).

In all of this we must be “Strong.” We must be strong in the Lord (Ephesians 6:10), strong in the faith (Hebrews 11:33-34), and do all that we can to stand in the face of the enemy (Luke 11:21-22). There is no place for weaklings in the Lord’s army.

In all things we must have “Love.” Paul wrote, “Charity suffereth long, and is kind; charity envieth not; charity vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up... Beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things. Charity never faileth... And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity” (I Corinthians 13:4, 6-8, 13). As Christians we must love in deed and in truth (I John 3:17-18). We must love God, the Lord, our brethren, the lost, the Truth, and the church. All of this must be done fervently (I Peter 1:22).

BIBLE SCHOOL CORNER

A Wonderful Time at V. B. S.

Vacation Bible School is a special time for a congregation as special training for our young people is given, as well as special training for the adults. We had a wonderful Vacation Bible School this past week. A big thanks goes out to brother Kevin Rowland for organizing this. Also, thanks to all who led songs and prayers, who taught classes, who prepared food, and who helped in any way!

The theme was “The Treasure of the Forgotten Island: Searching for Gems in Proverbs.” It was fascinating to delve deeper into this great book. Proverbs 2:6 says, “For the LORD giveth wisdom: out of his mouth cometh knowledge and understanding.” May we apply what we learned in this V. B. S. to our daily lives and seek to be wise in the eyes of the Lord. Also, may the memories made in this Vacation Bible School last forever!

NEWS

- It is good to assemble with the saints for study and worship!
- Sympathy is extended to the family of Malcolm Hill, who passed away this past Tuesday, June 26. His funeral was on Thursday, June 27. He is one who was on our Prayer List. He was a Gospel Preacher and an Elder for many years. He was also the Chancellor of Tennessee Bible College. Please remember to pray for his family.
- Thanks to all of those who helped make our Vacation Bible School such a success! Thanks to all who taught classes. Also, thanks to all who led songs and prayers, prepared food, helped with the cookout and hayride, and who helped in any way!
