PAUL'S FAREWELL TO TIMOTHY

BY: MARLIN KILPATRICK

There came a time in the life of the apostle Paul when he knew his life was drawing to an end (cf. II Tim. 4:6-8). The aged apostle was a prisoner at Rome — his second imprisonment. Tradition says he was beheaded at Rome in A.D. 68. Let's consider three things which enabled Paul to be prepared for his farewell.

First, Paul said, "I have fought a good fight" (II Tim. 4:7). The Christian life is a warfare, not physical, but spiritual (cf. II Cor. 10:3-5). Faithful Christians are "good soldiers of Jesus Christ" (II Tim. 2:3). Our warfare is a constant battle against the forces of evil. We must ever resist the devil (James 4:7). Paul set an example worthy our imitation (I Cor. 11:1). He would not have been "ready" for his departure had he not fought a good fight against the evil of his day. Brethren, there's presently a war going on, are we in it?

Second, Paul said, "I have finished my course" (II Tim. 4:7). Paul's "course" was determined by Christ. Jesus said to Paul, "I have chosen thee for this purpose" (Acts 26:16ff). Paul was a witness of the resurrected Lord: a minister of the Gospel sent to the Gentiles, "To open their eyes and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan to God, that they might receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among them which are sanctified by faith that is in me" (vs. 16,17). All of what the Lord wanted Paul to do, he had done to the best of his ability. Are we "working out our own salvation, with fear and trembling" (Phil. 2:12)?

Third, Paul said, "I have kept the faith" (II Tim. 4:7). Notice carefully how the personal pronoun "I" appears in each of these statements. Like Paul, each Christian is responsible for his/her own salvation. "The faith" is the Gospel of Christ — the system of faith (Rom. 1:16,17). Paul preached the Gospel publicly and from house to house (Acts 20:20). He defended the faith (Phil. 1:7,17). If ever there was a man who obeyed Jude's command to "earnestly contend for the faith," Paul was that man. Right here is where many preachers fail in their calling. Why? Because they are either (1) ignorant of how to defend the truth, and/or (2) they fail to see the need to do so.

Brethren, my greatest concern (and hopefully yours too) is that I might come to the end of my life and be able to say, "I am ready" (II Tim. 4:6). Paul was ready to die. How ready are you? Think about it

SICK LIST

Bobby Ballew	Dianne Pirtle
Charles Gann	Howard Prater, Jr.
Shirley Gann	Haley Taylor
Taylor Hobbs	Henry Thompson
Velma Maggert	Geneva Tenpenny
L. C. Mayfield	Barbara Waggoner

Please remember to pray for the sick. Acts 2:42 says, "And they continued steadfastly in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread, and in prayers."

BIBLE SCHOOL CORNER

Bible Studies Are for You!

We can never learn enough about the Word of God. We are thankful unto our God that He has given unto us the opportunities to study His Word on Sunday Morning at 10:00 AM and on Wednesday night at 7:00 PM. These are set periods of time in which we have classes for all ages. We appreciate all of the teachers of our Bible classes, who do wonderful jobs! We must study the Word of God in order to be pleasing in His sight (II Timothy 2:15).

Please come and be a part of our regular Bible study classes! These classes will be sure to do you good!
