“OVERCOMING SATAN”

BY: BRUCE STULTING

We must be concerned about Satan. We are warned in 1 Peter 5:8: “Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour.” Satan is real and is actively seeking the destruction of everyone; especially Christians. However, our Heavenly Father has not left us defenseless against the wiles of the devil.

In James 4:7 we read, “Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.” Truly, this is one of the greatest blessings afforded to Christians. Although Satan has power and influence and directs such toward Christians in temptations, we are given the ability to put him to flight. This ability to chase Satan away is based upon one’s willingness to “submit to God.” Only by submitting to God’s will can we cause Satan to flee.

By submitting to God, Jesus was able to overcome Satan when He was tempted. Jesus was tempted in the wilderness, on the pinnacle of the temple, and on the mountaintop. Each time He relied upon the Word of God for His defense. Finally, Jesus simply said, “Get thee hence, Satan” (Matthew 4:10). By submitting to God’s will and trusting in His Word, we too can overcome Satan.

However, we cannot successfully resist Satan if we do not care about the will of God. In fact, Jesus said in Matthew 7:21: “Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven.” Neither can Satan be resisted if we are inattentive to our responsibilities in the kingdom. Satan gains a great advantage over us if we fail to attend worship services (Hebrews 10:24-25). Also, when we fail to pray and study the Bible we become weak and easy prey for Satan. In 1 Peter 2:2, Peter exhorts, “As newborn babes, desire the sincere milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby” and in 1 Thessalonians 5:17, Paul instructs us to “Pray without ceasing.” We must remember that it takes strength to overcome Satan. According to Ephesians 6:10 that strength is “in the Lord, and in the power of his might.”

Please remember to pray for the sick.

In Matthew 25:36, we are told, that Jesus will tell those who remember to help those who are sick that, “I was sick, and ye visited me. . .”

BIBLE SCHOOL CORNER

Exodus

Our study on Wednesday night in the Adult Bible Class is on the book of Exodus. We are studying about how that God wants Moses to lead His people out of Egyptian bondage. Please join us for this class!
