“A Friendly Church Seeking to Edify Each Other as We Shine as Lights unto the World”
 Serving Since 1923

“Behold, I will make them of the synagogue of Satan, which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie; behold, I will make them to come and worship before thy feet, and to know that I have loved thee (Revelation 3:9).”

“LOOKING FORWARD: PART 3”

BY: JASON GANN

In the September 10th and October 8th editions of the Campaign Courier, we looked at reasons that it is good to look back. These are times that we must look back. In the November 12th and December 10th editions of the Campaign Courier, we looked at reasons we should look forward. Now, let us look at more reasons to look forward.

We are told in Luke 9:62, “And Jesus said unto him, No man, having put his hand to the plough, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God.” Jesus’ Words show that one cannot effectively serve God in the present if his mind is focused upon the past. Rather than living in the past, let us learn from its mistakes, thank God for its successes, and press on toward the mark of Heaven.

It is good to look back to the past to learn the good examples to be like them and to learn from the bad examples to not be like them. It is good to look to the past to learn from our mistakes, so that we do not make them again. It is good look to the past to remember precious memories. Precious memories help us go forward. It is good to rely on knowledge that we learned from the past. We must remember the poor and humble, and those in need. It is good to remember from the past who our enemies are, lest we forget who we are fighting in the good fight of faith. It is good to remember our trials, so that we will be stronger and know that we can overcome with God’s Help. It is good to remember the past to remember to whom to give honor. It is good to reflect upon the past to learn about all of our blessings. These are times that we must look back.

Luke 17:32 says, “Remember Lot's wife.” It is not good to remember your sins from the past as continuing to hold these against yourself once you have repented. You must move on from these. It is not good to dwell on the sinful things you have done in the past, once you have repented, because God has forgiven you and you must forgive yourself. It is not good to look back at the sinful ways in which you obtained temporary pleasure in the past, and long for them with desire. It is not good to look back at the sins of others, for which they have repented, and hold them against them. My friends, these are times that we must not look back, but rather, we must look forward.
