“ARE ALL PRAYERS ACCEPTABLE TO GOD?: PART 3”

BY: IVIE POWELL

- God’s ears are not open to the prayers of the ungodly (1 Peter 3:12).
- God will not hear the prayers of those who are covetous (1 Tim. 6:10; Col. 3:5-6).
- God will not hear the prayers of those who refuse to forgive (Matt. 6:14-15).
- God will not hear the prayers of immoral brethren (Gal. 5:19-21).
- God will not hear the prayers of false teachers (2 John 9-11).
- God will not hear the prayers of those who support immorality of any sort (Rom. 1:18,32).
- God will not hear the prayers of those who have iniquity in their heart (Psalms 66:18).
- God will not hear the prayers if one does not have faith (James 1:5-7).
- God will not hear the prayers of the self-righteous (Luke 18:9-12).
- God will not hear the prayers of those who will not hear His precepts (Prov. 28:9; 1 Peter 3:12).
- God will not hear the prayers of a Christian husband who does not maintain the proper relationship with his wife (1 Peter 3:7).

In addition to these matters, God will not hear the prayers of those who use phrases and requests that are clearly not in harmony with His will!

For example, for one to state, Lord we know that the “end times” are here, or to imply that there are signs of the Lord’s return, is without scriptural support! Jesus made it clear that no one knows when He shall return, “But of that day and that hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels which are in heaven, neither the Son, but the Father” (Mark 13:32). As for signs of His coming, Jesus said there would be no signs of His coming — it would be just an ordinary day (Matt. 24:36-39).

Another example of an unscriptural request is to ask the Lord to help us to “testify” and “witness” for Christ. The only ones who were witnesses for Christ were chosen by God to give testimony of the resurrection of Christ. The apostle Peter said, “Him God raised up the third day, and shewed him openly; Not to all the people, but unto witnesses chosen before of God, [even] to us, who did eat and drink with him after he rose from the dead” (Acts 10:40-41). Christians today ‘can not’ and ‘do not’ “witness for Christ;” instead, we teach the Gospel which is God’s power unto salvation (Rom. 1:16)!

A third example of an unscriptural prayer is thanking the Lord for giving us the Holy Spirit to guide us into all truth. The Holy Spirit was not sent to us, He was sent to the apostles, to guide them into all truth (John 14:26; 16:13). We are to study the Scriptures that are inspired of God to know the truth (2 Tim. 2:15). There are no miraculous manifestations of the Holy Spirit for Christians today (1 Cor. 13:8-10)!

No, all prayers are not acceptable to God! So let us be careful how and what we pray so we can say like David, “The Lord hath heard my supplication; the Lord will receive my prayer” (Psalms 6:9).
