Solomon said, "Do not boast about tomorrow, for you do not know what a day may bring forth" (Prov. 27:1). Jesus said, "Therefore do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about its own things. Sufficient for the day is its own trouble" (Matt. 6:34). We need faith in these turbulent times to keep us from going to either extreme.

The great book of Ecclesiastes gives us wisdom we cannot find anywhere else. It tells us, "That which has been is what will be, that which is done is what will be done, and there is nothing new under the sun" (Ecc. 1:9). It reminds us of the cycles and phases of life: "To everything there is a season, a time for every purpose under heaven" (Ecc. 3:1).

One of the best things Christians can do these days is turn off the television, leave social media alone, read the book of Ecclesiastes, and perhaps sing the chorus of "God Holds the Future in His Hands."

"A Friendly Church Seeking to Edify Each Other as We Shine as Lights unto the World"
Serving Since 1923

"Then he said, I have sinned: yet honour me now, I pray thee, before the elders of my people, and before Israel, and turn again with me, that I may worship the LORD thy God (I Samuel 15:30)."

“THE YEAR AHEAD” BY: KERRY DUKE

“For who can tell a man what shall be after him under the sun?” (Ecclesiastes 6:12)

An issue of TIME magazine almost thirty years ago gave examples of men who tried to do what man cannot do—predict the future. Here are some of these predictions made in the 1900s as listed in TIME, Fall, 1992:

- Henry Adams, considered to be one of America’s foremost thinkers, said in 1903, “My figures coincide in setting 1950 as the year that the world must smash.”
- In 1901, two years before Kitty Hawk, Wilbur Wright told his brother Orville that man would not fly for fifty years.
- Not long before the atomic bomb was dropped on Hiroshima, Admiral William Leary told Harry Truman, “This is the biggest fool thing we have ever done...the bomb will never go off.”
- Some even claimed that scientists would create machines that would be able to read our minds!

Here we are years later feeling the same curiosity and anxiety about the future. This time, however, the uncertainty is more far-reaching. Our world has changed dramatically. The year 2020 was like an earthquake and every month since has been like an aftershock. Our laws, our economy, our population and our entire culture is changing so rapidly that it is hard to make plans for anything.

There is only one way to have peace and clarity in a world that has been turned upside down: hold to God’s unchanging hand and trust in His all-seeing eye. Remember that the Lord said, “I am God, and there is none like me, declaring the end from the beginning, and from ancient times the things that are not yet done” (Isa. 46:9-10). God has always known everything in the future. Nothing surprises Him. He saw the Civil War, the Great Depression and COVID coming long before they broke into history. He knows every detail of the results of each crisis and works all things for the good of His people (Rom 8:28). We will never be able to see what God sees, but that should not keep us from trusting that He does.

The Bible teaches us not to brag about the future or worry about it.

What Is Your Favorite Thing about Teaching a Bible Class?

Answer:

from Lindsey Dixon, Elementary Bible Class Teacher -

“Seeing how much they have grown throughout the years, and seeing how much they comprehend/remember from each Bible lesson.”

NEWS

- Let us praise our God on this day of worship. We will join together to praise Him!
- Sympathy is extended to the family of James Watkins, a member and preacher of the church of Christ. He passed away last Thursday, January 13. Brother Watkins served as preacher for various congregations and most recently for the Church Street church of Christ in Lewisburg where he served for many years. He preached the Gospel for over 60 years. He served as host for the “Preaching the Gospel” television program on the Gospel Broadcasting Network for many years. He preached in the 2014 Gospel Meeting for our congregation. We appreciate having been able to have him with us to preach here and for all of his great work in preaching and teaching the Gospel. We will miss him. Visitation with family will be from 11:00 AM until time of funeral at 2:00 PM at the London Funeral Home in Lewisburg, TN. Please pray for comfort for his family.
- The Campaign congregation is now listed in the “Church Directory” of the Southern Standard. You may check this out in Friday editions of this newspaper.
- Tennessee Bible College Chapel services (in Cookeville), 9:00 AM on Mondays and Tuesdays each Quarter; These are open to all.; Jason Gann will be speaking in Chapel session tomorrow, January 17, if the Lord wills.
- This week’s suggested pantry item is spaghetti sauce.
