“GRIEVE NOT THE HOLY SPIRIT: PART 1”

BY: MARVIN L. WEIR

It is indeed possible to grieve the Holy Spirit as He is not a mere influence, but a gracious and loving personality. The brethren at Ephesus were warned, “And grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption” (Eph. 4:30). All of the attributes of Deity are attributed to the Holy Spirit.

The works of the Holy Spirit attest to His personality. First, the Spirit speaks: “Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils” (1 Tim. 4:1; cf. Acts 8:29; 10:19). Second, the Spirit witnesses or testifies: “But when the Comforter is come, whom I will send unto you from the Father, [even] the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father, he shall testify of me” (John 15:26). Third, the Spirit teaches and quickens the mind: “But the Comforter, [which is] the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you” (John 14:26). Fourth, the Spirit guides: “Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, [that] shall he speak: and he will shew you things to come” (John 16:13). We do not live in the miraculous age today, but these Scriptures clearly depict the Holy Spirit as a personality.

Not only can the Holy Spirit be grieved, but He can be lied to and resisted (Acts 5:3; 7:51), blasphemed (Mark 12:31-32), and despised (Heb. 10:29). Such cannot be affirmed of a mere influence or principle! One can grieve the Holy Spirit today by:

Unholy And Profitless Speech! The apostle Paul admonished, “Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace unto the hearers. ... Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice” (Eph. 4:29,31). Communication that in no way edifies but rather has a “corrupting” influence upon the hearer must indeed grieve the Holy Spirit. The Spirit of Truth can have no fellowship with frivolous and lighthearted talk regarding sacred matters.

A brochure describes one preacher as bringing “a lighthearted perspective to the gospel.” It is true that one definition of “lighthearted” can be “happy and relaxed; not weighed down with worries or troubles.” Another definition, however, and the troublesome one, is “entertaining in an amusing carefree way.” Brethren, the way the word “lighthearted” is generally understood, I take exception that one can have a “lighthearted” perspective regarding the Gospel. It would not be a compliment for one to say that I have a “lighthearted perspective” regarding sacred matters! Lighthearted about what, the church, the blood of Christ, the plan of salvation, Christian living, singing, or the Lord’s Supper? I think not!

BIBLE SCHOOL CORNER

Wednesday Night Adult Class Report

By: Jason Gann, Teacher

We have recently began a new study on the book of Numbers. We are studying about the works of the Priests and the Levites in the service of the Lord. Truly, God wanted His people under the Old Law to be holy. He also wants His people under the New Law to be holy. May we live holy lives each and every day. Join us for Bible Study!
