“A Friendly Church Seeking to Edify Each Other as We Shine as Lights unto the World”

Serving Since 1923

“Behold the fowls of the air: for they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are ye not much better than they? (Matthew 6:26).”

“WHO WAS PHILETUS?: PART 2”

BY: FREDDIE CLAYTON

If the Holy Spirit through Paul had used the “don’t call names” approach that we often hear suggested, how many other unsuspecting brethren would have had their faith overthrown and been lost because of this error? What if the Holy Spirit had said, “There’s some false doctrine that is being taught about the resurrection, and some brethren are experiencing the overthrow of their faith because of it, but we will just leave it at that because calling names would be just too personal and controversial.”

Where do those who contend for such get the idea? When brethren are being influenced by those who are intent on subtracting from the truth (I John 1:6-10) or in adding to the truth (Gal. 1:6-9; 5:7), such perverted gospels and the promoters thereof must be exposed. When error and its proponents are publicly named, we are simply doing what the Scriptures instruct us to do by command (Rom. 16:17; Titus 3:9-11) and by example (I Tim. 1:19,20; II Tim. 2:17,18; III John 9-11). No apology for doing so is needed.
