"A Friendly Church Seeking to Edify Each Other as We Shine as Lights unto the World"
 Serving Since 1923

"The four and twenty elders fall down before him that sat on the throne, and worship him that liveth for ever and ever, and cast their crowns before the throne, saying, Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honour and power: for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created (Revelation 4:10-11)."

“THE FRUITS OF SIN: PART 2”

BY: ROELF L. RUFFNER

Referring to an American denomination releasing a report which recommended their denomination accept practicing homosexuals into their church as well as unmarried heterosexual couples "living together," brother Ruffner continues by saying the following: Even though this report will probably not be adopted at any convention of this denomination in the near future it does point out the sin inherent in any man-made religious organization. The same God who said, "he hateth putting away" (divorce, Malachi 2:16) also said through Paul, "Now I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you; but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment" (1 Cor. 1:10). God does not want many "churches" but one body, the church of Christ (Matt. 16:18; Eph. 4:4). He certainly does not want a polyglot of religious confusion with each party "doing its own thing" yet still claiming to have "unity in diversity" in Christ. How contrary to the spirit of unity for which Christ prayed (John 17:20-21)!

“Marshall Keeble was asked what Paul meant when he said to “preach the gospel in season and out of season.” Brother Keeble replied, “It means preach it when they like it, and preach it when they don’t like it.”

The Pew Packers class began learning a Books of the Old Testament song last Sunday. The students are frequently asked how many books of the Bible are there along with what some of these books are to test their memories. They know the Books of the New Testament song well, so now they are learning this song!
