"A Friendly Church Seeking to Edify Each Other as We Shine as Lights unto the World"
Serving Since 1923

"For we have great joy and consolation in thy love, because the bowels of the saints are refreshed by thee, brother (Philemon 7)."

“THE RELUCTANT WARRIOR” BY: ERNEST UNDERWOOD

I know a man who participated in the invasion of North Africa in World War II. From North Africa he went to Sicily, to Italy, and then finally was involved in the crossing of the Rhine and the invasion of Germany.

When this man finally returned home he told of how weary a soldier becomes of battles and war. He stated that there were times when he would have liked to just quit. However, he didn't. He, and thousands of others realized that so much depended on them. Had they quit, you and I would likely not enjoy the freedom we presently do.

As I reflect on this man and his battle experiences I am made aware that he was not unlike many in the Lord's army, the church. We have our reluctant warriors in the church. Once they were ready defenders of the faith. They stood against any and all departures whether it was bringing in the things which God had not authorized, or defending the faith against those who would make laws where God has not bound. Now, however, some of these have become weary of the battle and sort of compromise. This compromise may be the allowing of departures from doctrine without raising voice in protest. It may come about as a result of being reluctant to mark and avoid a close friend or loved one, or it may result by just taking a non-committal stand against the forces of error.

No matter how it happens, it is wrong. The souls of future generations depend on us today to hand down to them the pure gospel which will produce the pure church. We need not think that we can do this without an all out battle against all the wiles of the devil. There are no furloughs in the army of the Lord. As those before us went to battle that we might have the true church, so let us do for our posterity.

Let us not be reluctant warriors: “Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life . . . ”
(I Tim. 6:12).

A new heaven and earth,
I wrote in a letter to tell;
The Father has promised,
For the righteous to dwell

NEWS

- Thank you for your presence with us today as we gather to offer the sacrifices of praise unto the Lord.
- Sympathy is extended to the family of Nelta Cantrell, a member of the Bethany church of Christ. She passed away last Thursday, January 21. Please pray for God to comfort her family.
- Let us pray for our new United States President, Joe Biden, and our new United States Vice President, Kamala Harris, who took office last Wednesday, January 20. Let us pray for all of our other government leaders, also. Let us continue to pray that they will lead in the way that God wants.
- This week's suggested pantry item is a box of pop tarts.
- Happy Birthday to Charles Gann, who will celebrate this Wednesday, January 27, if the Lord wills!
- Please come back on Wednesday night at 7:00 for Bible Study.
