"In the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah came this word from the LORD, saying, Thus saith the LORD; Stand in the court of the LORD's house, and speak unto all the cities of Judah, which come to worship in the LORD's house, all the words that I command thee to speak unto them; diminish not a word: If so be they will hearken, and turn every man from his evil way, that I may repent me of the evil, which I purpose to do unto them because of the evil of their doings (Jeremiah 26:1-3)."

“SPECIAL NIGHT CLASS AT TENNESSEE BIBLE COLLEGE ON ISSUES FACING THE CHURCH”

BY: JASON GANN

Friends, we live in perilous times, but we knew they would come, did we not? II Timothy 3:1 has already told us, “. . . in the last days perilous times shall come.” In the same context of verses 12 and 13, we are told, “Yea, and all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution. But evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived.” Those times are here.

Some as II Timothy 4:3-4 tells us will not endure sound doctrine, but after their own lusts, they have heaped to themselves teachers, having itching ears, many choosing to believe fables, rather than the Truth of God’s Word, John 17:17. Churches are troubled with many questions and problems in this changing world. Christians need more of the wisdom and faith that the Scriptures give. We know that within the Holy Scriptures we have all things that pertain unto life and godliness (II Peter 1:3). II Timothy 3:16-17 still says, “All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: That the man of God may be perfect, throughly furnished unto all good works.”
