“A Friendly Church Seeking to Edify Each Other
as We Shine as Lights unto the World”
Serving Since 1923

“Exalt ye the LORD our God, and worship at his footstool;
for he is holy (Psalm 99:5).”

“MEET THEM WHERE THEY ARE: PART 2”

BY: KERRY DUKE

- Jesus loved and welcomed children (Matt. 18:1-4; 19:13-15; 21:15-16). However, we never read of Him telling priests at the temple, “We need to do something or we’re going to lose our young people. We need to have more for children so they won’t get bored and feel disconnected with all these sacrifices and other grownup rituals. How about having ‘children’s worship’ at the temple?” Christ never did this. He expected children to watch and learn and be patient as their parents worshipped.
- John the Baptist drew crowds, but not by watering down the truth. He told tax collectors, “Collect no more than what is appointed for you” (Luke 3:13). He warned soldiers, “Do not intimidate anyone or accuse falsely” (Luke 3:14). He told a sinful king, “It is not lawful for you to have your brother’s wife” (Mark 6:18). Yes, he judged them by the authority of the Word of God and had a revival beyond anything we have ever seen. Let church growth strategists ponder this!
- Jesus worked with thousands of people in John 6. He fed them and taught them. As long as he gave them loaves and fish they followed Him. But when He preached something they did not like, the crowd dwindled: “From that time many of his disciples went back, and walked no more with him” (John 6:66). He did not soften His preaching to hold numbers.

We must reach out to people. We should make sinners feel welcome at church services. We ought to speak the truth in love. But it is neither our right nor our job to keep the truth from them and make them feel comfortable in their lost condition.
