“CONTENDING FOR THE FAITH: PART 1”

BY: JAMES W. BOYD

You should begin this lesson by reading Jude from your own Bible then return to our comments. It is one short chapter. But your understanding of it is vital to this discussion. It would be profitable to discuss the entire chapter verse by verse. But our focus centers on verse three, “...and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints.” Here we have a description of THE FAITH. Literally the text tells us “to contend earnestly for the once -for-all-delivered-to-the-saints faith.” While writing this epistle on salvation, the Holy Spirit led Jude to include these words about contending for THE FAITH. There are reasons for this. There will always be those who will contend against it. The text shows us God’s recognition of false teachers, false brethren, false doctrines, and the dangers of such to the souls of men everywhere—even the church of Christ. God knows what will happen to the church when error is left unchecked and proponents of error are allowed to go without challenge to their false doctrines.

FALSE TEACHERS

False teachers are described in several ways in this one chapter book. There are those who crept in (v.4)—religious creeps. They are ungodly men (v.4), filthy dreamers, fleshly, despising God’s authority (v.8). Jude calls them brute beasts (v.10). They are like Cain, going to have their own way; like Balaam, the Old Testament compromiser who led Israel to sin; like Korah, leader of rebellion against Moses, Aaron, and the authority of God (v.11).
