“THE LORD’S SUPPER: ITS OBSERVANCE”

BY: ANDY KIZER

At least four different religious ideas are connected with our observance of the Lord’s supper. All of these have very deep significance.

First, the communion is always associated with prayer. When He set up this act of worship, Jesus, our example, gave thanks for each of the elements of the communion service. The serious prayers uttered when we commune with the Lord involve thanksgiving and petition.

The second important element to remember in the communion service is the element of fellowship. In this practice there is fellowship with each other as members of God’s chosen family; fellowship with God, the Father, and fellowship with our Lord Jesus Christ. Matthew 26:29 suggests that since the establishment of the kingdom on the day of Pentecost, our Lord has been meeting with His disciples. In some way, He is present when we all come together to participate in the communion.

The third element of the Lord’s Supper is to be found in the fact that it is a memorial. Paul speaks of this in 1 Corinthians 11. This institution is the perpetual reminder that we are saved by the blood of Christ. When we partake of this meal we remember that Jesus died on the cross. We remember that on that cross He shed His blood for us, for the remission of our sins. God wants us to keep that memory alive.

Finally, the communion service is a declaration. When we partake, as Paul states in 1 Corinthians 11, we declare our faith that Jesus will come again. The Lord’s Supper is observed in a spirit of hope with an attitude of optimism on the first day of every week. “For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do shew the Lord’s death till he come” (1 Cor. 11:26).

BIBLE SCHOOL CORNER

Is Bible Class Important to You?

Bible Class is such a special time. A teacher has prepared a lesson that the teacher will teach to others while also teaching to the teacher’s self. The learners will come to learn, opening the most precious Book of all, God’s Book. The learners participate and learn from each other. What a special time a Bible Class is! It is so very special. I hope Bible Class is important to you.
