“A Friendly Church Seeking to Edify Each Other
as We Shine as Lights unto the World”

Serving Since 1923

“We therefore ought to receive such, that we might be fellowhelpers to the truth (III John 8).”

“WE MUST BE STRONG: PART 1”

BY: GARLAND ELKINS

After discussing many subjects, Paul, in the first Corinthian epistle, summed up the letter in these words: “Watch ye, stand fast in the faith, quit you like men, be strong. Let all that ye do be done in love” (1 Cor. 16:13-14). If space permitted I would discuss all five of these great Christian duties. However, since space is so limited, I shall discuss only the statement, “quit you like men, be strong” (1 Cor. 16:13). The word “quit” as used by Paul means “to behave” as men.

We call attention to some of the components of strength. To be strong:

There must be depth.

The iceberg is steadied because the great mass of its bulk is beneath the surface. Likewise the life of a strong man must go deep. Underneath the surface lie the great principles that endure—truths and the things that make for good character and wholesome life.

There is steadiness.

The strong man is a steady man, when the storm is on, holds himself quietly at his post, keeping his courage and the courage of others. The weak person allows mere trifles to become magnified into mountains. A few strong men standing firmly for truth, not easily excited, with quiet confidence in God and their fellow man can accomplish great things.

There is the acceptance of responsibility.

An empty life cannot fare well in a storm. We never know just how strong one’s life is until it is loaded with a task that taxes it to the utmost. In a storm Jesus asked, “Why are ye fearful? have ye not yet faith?” (Mark 4:40). “And he said unto them, Where is your faith?” (Luke 8:25).

BIBLE SCHOOL CORNER

Reflections on our Gospel Meeting

We appreciated brother Chris Whitaker speaking as a guest speaker in the Sunday Morning Adult Bible Study Class. On Wednesday night, the regular Bible Study Classes were not held as all stayed in the Auditorium to hear the preaching of brother Whitaker. There will be regular Bible classes this Sunday and Wednesday, again.

NEWS

- We welcome you!
- Our hearts were made to rejoice this past Wednesday, October 26, when Denise Mayfield repented of her sins and confessed her sins. Please remember to encourage her as she has rededicated her life to the Lord.
- Sympathy is extended to the family of Garland Elkins, a long-time Gospel preacher. He passed away on October 28. Please pray for comfort for his family.
- Thanks to all who helped to make the 2016 Gospel Meeting a spiritual success! We thank God for blessing us with this Gospel Meeting. We thank brother Whitaker for preaching sound lessons. Thanks to Michael Hillis, Alex Rowland, Greg Rowland, and Kevin Rowland for leading the songs. Thanks to those who prepared food on Sunday morning. Thanks to each person who invited someone and for each visitor who came. We had people visit from several congregations in Warren County and other counties. Let us pray that the memories made and lessons proclaimed during this Gospel Meeting will continue to encourage us to grow in our service to our God, so that we can be pleasing unto Him and reach our Ultimate Goal of going to Heaven!
- Thanks to all who brought items for the Fall Food Drive for Tennessee Children’s Home. A representative from there picked up the supplies this past Tuesday.
