“BE THOU FAITHFUL UNTO DEATH”

BY: JASON GANN

Jesus says in Revelation 2:10, “Fear none of those things which thou shalt suffer: behold, the devil shall cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried; and ye shall have tribulation ten days: be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life.” This particular verse is in the context of Him speaking to the angel of the church in Smyrna. This congregation is made aware that Christ knows their works, tribulation, and poverty, though they are rich. He makes them aware that He knows the blasphemy of them that say they are Jews, and they are not, but are the synagogue of Satan. It is in this context, that they are told to fear none of those things they would suffer. They are even made aware that the Devil will cast some of them into prison, that they may be tried, and while they would have tribulation for ten days, they are still to be faithful to death.

If they would stand strong through the test of being thrown into prison, they would be even stronger for any future trials, and would also be preparing themselves a home in heaven, for they are promised a crown of life for faithful living. They were told to remain faithful even if inflicted with death in their persecutions.

The crown of life as spoken of here is also spoken of “a crown of righteousness” in II Timothy 4:8, “a crown of glory” in I Peter 5:4, and a crown that is “an incorruptible” in I Corinthians 9:24-25. This is the prize of the faithful, Heaven in the end. I long for that time! I Corinthians 4:2 makes it clear that we must all be faithful. We live according to God’s Word. Let us be faithful to the very point of death!
