The Athlete. II Timothy 2:5 says, "And if a man also strive for masteries, yet is he not crowned, except he strive lawfully." An athlete has to conform to the rules of the games to get the rewards. Likewise, we can only gain the crown of Heaven by being faithful (Revelation 2:10).

The Farmer. II Timothy 2:6 says, "The husbandman that laboureth must be first partaker of the fruits." Often times today, we call husbandmen by the term, "farmers." This word can mean tillers of the ground and vine dressers. The husbandman or farmer must work according to God's Laws of Nature for the growing of fruits and vegetables. He who labors must receive the benefits and fruits of the labor, and so it is with Christians. We must endure and be patient.

In this triple picture presented, we see that not every soldier pleases his Captain, but the one who focuses on his work does; not every athlete is crowned, but he who conforms to the rules of the games and follows them does; and not every farmer or toiler of the soil gathers in the fruits and vegetables, but the patient one will. It must be this way for us, Christians, also. We must give it our best to live for God to be found faithful in the end and to have Heaven as eternal place of abode. We must be patient. Let us patiently work to please our Maker!

“THE SOLDIER, THE ATHLETE, AND THE FARMER” BY: JASON GANN

II Peter 1:10 says, “Wherefore the rather, brethren, give diligence to make your calling and election sure: for if ye do these things, ye shall never fall:”. As Christians, we must be totally obedient to the Father for no sin can enter into Heaven (Hebrews 5:9, James 2:10, and Revelation 21:27). We must work diligently to be conformed into the Image of Christ, while putting God First as Christ did (Romans 8:29, Matthew 6:33). The Apostle Paul counseled young Timothy to endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ, as he does to each of us, by inspiration of God to consider what he says, asking that the Lord give understanding in all things. He calls upon Timothy and us to think about three examples, those of the soldier, the athlete, and the husbandman or farmer (II Timothy 2:3-7).

The Soldier. II Timothy 2:4 says, “No man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life; that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier.” Soldiers must render complete obedience to their Captain. Likewise, as Christians, we must not entangle ourselves in such a way with the affairs of life that we cannot render faithful service to Jesus Christ. A secular job should every athlete wins the never come before service to God. (Note: Continued on Page 4)
