“CAIN AND ABEL”

BY: EARL B. CLAUD

Cain and Abel were sons of Adam and Eve (Gen. 4:1-2). Abel was a keeper of sheep while Cain was a tiller of the ground (Gen. 4:2). These two brothers offered a sacrifice to God. Cain offered of the “fruit of the ground” and Abel offered of his flock. God accepted Abel’s offering but rejected Cain’s. This rejection caused Cain to become angry and he vented his anger by killing his brother (Gen. 4:3-8).

In studying the whole Bible we learn Cain disobeyed God in the sacrifice he made. Abel offered by faith (Heb. 11:4). Paul writes, “faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God” (Rom. 10:17). This verse proves that Cain and Abel were told what to sacrifice. Cain chose to sacrifice what he wanted and disobeyed God. God would have accepted his sacrifice if he had obeyed (Gen. 4:7). Instead of repenting and obeying God, he killed his brother. Abel was the only one right in his sacrifice (Heb. 11:4). Cain was in sin because he did not do what God told him to do (1 John 3:12). It is sad to see Cain turn from God just to have his own way (Jude 11).

Cain’s bad example is a great lesson for us today (cf. Rom. 15:4; 1 Cor. 10:11). Many people are members of churches that men established. Instead of obeying God, they began their own church (Matt. 15:9; Mark 7:7-9). Instead of wearing the name of Christ they wear the names of men (1 Cor. 1:10-13). Men replace the plan God gave for man’s salvation with their own plan (Matt. 16:16; Acts 2:38; 22:16). Some churches accept fornicators and adulterers into their worship but God says it is a sin to do so (Matt 19:9; 1 Cor. 6:9-11). God gave command to sing in worship but man changed the worship by adding mechanical instruments of music. There is no authority to add instruments to singing (Col. 3:17). Many more things could be added to this list of changes but these are enough to show that the spirit of Cain is alive and well today (Jude 11).

Do you have the disobedient spirit of Cain or the obedient spirit of Abel? It’s not too late to change.

BIBLE SCHOOL CORNER

Reflections on the Gospel Meeting

We appreciated brother Paul Wilmoth speaking as a guest speaker in the Sunday Morning Adult Bible Study Class. On Wednesday night, the regular Bible Study Classes were not held as all stayed in the Auditorium to hear the preaching of brother Wilmoth. There will be regular Bible classes this Sunday and Wednesday, again.

NEWS

- Thanks for being here with us!
- Sympathy is extended to the family of Karen Ferrell. She passed away this past Wednesday, October 28. Please pray for comfort for her family.
- Thanks to all who helped to make the 2015 Gospel Meeting a spiritual success! We thank God for allowing us to have this Gospel Meeting. We thank brother Wilmoth for preaching sound lessons. Thanks to Alex Rowland, Greg Rowland, Kevin Rowland, and Joel Tenpenny for leading the songs. Thanks to those who prepared food on Sunday morning. Thanks to each person who invited someone and for each visitor who came. We had people visit from several congregations in Warren County. We also had some visitors from congregations outside of this county. Let us pray that the memories made and lessons proclaimed during this Gospel Meeting will continue to encourage us to grow in our service to the Lord, so that we can be pleasing unto our God and reach our Ultimate Goal of going to Heaven!
- The men of the congregation who are willing are asked to plan to lead some songs tonight during the “Singing Night.”
- Teachers of the youth Bible classes are asked to submit the “Perfect Attendance Lists” for the month of October, this Wednesday.
- This week’s suggested pantry item is a can of pinto beans.
