“A Friendly Church Seeking to Edify Each Other
 as We Shine as Lights unto the World”

Serving Since 1923

“Therefore whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man, which built his house upon a rock: And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell not: for it was founded upon a rock (Matthew 7:24-25).”

“CONTENDING FOR THE FAITH: PART 2”

BY: JAMES W. BOYD

They are spots, clouds without water, trees with dead fruit (v.12). Verse thirteen pictures them as raging waves foaming in shame, and wandering stars in the blackness of darkness. They are murmurers, complainers, and mockers (v.18). God’s attitude toward such people is clear. Verse five says they shall be destroyed as unbelievers. Everlasting chains under darkness are reserved for them (v.6). Like Sodom and Gomorrah, they will suffer the vengeance of eternal fire (v.7).

Knowing the danger of such people, having a love for brethren, Jude was compelled to write with diligence to deal with false brethren, and deal with them he does. There is no hesitation or apology in his words about false teaching and false teachers. He wrote with clarity, definiteness, and decisiveness. There is nothing vague or ambiguous in his words. Notice verse three in detail.

THE FAITH

There is such a thing as THE FAITH. Paul said in Ephesians 4:4, “There is one faith.” How that differs with denominationalism that contends not for THE FAITH, but for many faiths, leaving it to man to choose the faith of his choice! THE FAITH is the plain, simple, powerful New Testament Gospel revelation, the truth, the doctrine of Christ, the Word of God. When Paul was in Paphos and met Sergius Paulus he encountered Elymas the sorcerer who sought to “turn the deputy away from the faith” (Acts 13:8). The deputy was a prudent man. Elymas resisted the teaching of Paul and tried to prevent the acceptance of the system of salvation—that body of doctrine of God’s plan for saving man.

In Acts 14:22, Paul exhorted brethren to “continue in the faith.” From Acts 15:9 we learn the hearts of the Gentiles, like all others, are purified by “the faith.” The Greek includes the indefinite article “the.” Galatians 3:23, “But before faith came, we were kept under the law, shut up unto the faith which should afterward be revealed.” The faith refers to the Gospel system. This is not just belief, but has reference to the religion of which Christ is author and founder. Paul continued to write what we are, namely, children of God. He tells us where we are, namely, in Christ. He tells us how we got there, namely, being baptized into Christ. This is the message of THE FAITH, God’s power unto salvation (Rom. 1:16) for which we are to earnestly contend (Jude 3).

A DELIVERED FAITH

Notice further that the faith is a DELIVERED FAITH. It is not a product of the minds of men, man’s genius, invention, or origin. Paul states that his apostleship was of God (Gal. 1:1). In verses 11,12, “But I certify you brethren, that the gospel which was preached of me is not after man. For I neither received it of man, neither was I taught it, but by the revelation of Jesus Christ.” What he preached was not a product of his education, former religion, own reasoning, human philosophy, or any such thing. The Gospel is affirmed to be heaven’s revelation.
