“LASTING PEACE”

BY: JERRY L. MARTIN

Peace, in the Greek, carries a meaning “to set at oneness, to make whole.” The Hebrew language uses a word shalom which expresses sincere desire for one to “fare-well in body, mind, soul and estate.” Peace is such a soothing word. It engenders hope, promises, happiness, and gives meaning as well as purpose to life. Individuals crave peace of mind. Couples desire to dwell together in peace and harmony. Families want to function and communicate in an environment of peace. Congregations endeavor to keep “the unity of the spirit in the bond of peace.” Communities and even nations spend huge amounts of money to promote peace. Why is something so beautiful and so sought after so hard to achieve and maintain? The answer is that many have redefined the meaning of peace. Others are seeking it from the wrong source. Lasting peace can only be had when we recognize and accept the:

God of Peace. He is the source of lasting peace. “Finally, brethren, farewell. Be perfect, be of good comfort, be of one mind, live in peace; and the God of love and peace shall be with you” (2 Cor. 13:11). We waste our time if we go to any other source for peace (1 The. 5:21-23).

Peace of God. He designed peace that lasts. “Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God. And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus” (Phi. 4:6-7). God’s prescription for peace is outlined in Paul’s letter to the church at Colosse (Col. 3:12-17).

Peace from God. Since He is the source of peace and designed peace for us, true and lasting peace can only come from Him. “To all that be in Rome, beloved of God, called to be saints: Grace to you and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ” (Rom. 1:7). In almost every epistle Paul wrote, he expressed his prayer that Christians have the peace that comes from God (1 Cor. 1:3; 2 Cor. 1:2; Gal. 1:3; Eph. 1:3; Phi. 1:2).

Peace with God. God desires that all mankind be at peace with Him. “Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ” (Rom. 5:1). We can have peace with God only through Jesus “for he is our peace” (Eph. 2:12-17). Those who accept the God of peace and His terms for real peace are the only ones who will have lasting peace. When we honestly and sincerely want and make peace with God we will have taken the first step in securing personal, marital, family, congregational, and extended peace. “Now the Lord of peace himself give you peace always by all means. The Lord be with you all” (2 The. 3:16).

BIBLE SCHOOL CORNER

Every Sunday Morning!

It is wonderful to be able to arrive at the church building and to begin to prepare our minds for our Sunday Morning Worship Service with a period of Bible Study. We begin with a time of singing, Scripture reading, and prayer. Then, we study the Word of God in our Bible Classes. It is a great way to start a Sunday morning.

NEWS

- We love that you are with us! Come back anytime!
- Please remember to sign the “Sign-up Sheet” to volunteer to bring food for the “End of the Year” Fellowship Meal, which will be held after the Sunday Morning Worship Service on December 6, 2015.
- The youth will be drawing names today to exchange gifts during our “End of the Year” Fellowship Meal. This will take place in the youth classes.
- This week’s suggested pantry item is a can of canned potatoes.
