- There could be and sometimes is a fixed determination to do wrong even though we know it is evil. Balaam was determined to do wrong even though he knew what was right (Num. 24:1-9). Today, we still have those who go “in the way of Cain” and run “riotously in the error of Balaam” (Jude 11). Some in the church at Pergamum held the doctrine of Balaam (Rev. 2:14). Balaam was the ancient counterpart of the present-day liberal. Balaam taught that adultery and fornication were matters of indifference, and joining in false worship was a matter of preference.
- No length of service can guarantee against rebellion and treachery. Many ships have crossed the ocean only to be wrecked at the home harbor. Armies have been victorious in hundreds of battles and then destroyed at last. John said, “Be thou faithful unto death” if we expect the crown of life (2:10).

PLAN OF SALVATION

- Hear (Romans 10:17)
- Believe (Mark 16:16)
- Repent (Acts 17:30)
- Confess (Matthew 10:32)
- Be Baptized (Acts 2:38)
- Remain faithful (Revelation 2:10)

“Then Paul, after that the governor had beckoned unto him to speak, answered, Forasmuch as I know that thou hast been of many years a judge unto this nation, I do the more cheerfully answer for myself: Because that thou mayest understand, that there are yet but twelve days since I went up to Jerusalem for to worship (Acts 24:10-11).”

“IS IT I?” BY: G. K. WALLACE

During the Passover supper, Jesus told His apostles that one of them would betray Him (Mat. 26:20-22). The apostles—“every one” began to ask, “Is it I?” From this, we may learn:

1. The possibility of evil may lie slumbering in every heart. Sin is like a rattlesnake—coiled and ready to strike. Let no man be so foolish as to say that the sins committed by others are impossible to him. Paul said, “Wherefore let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall” (1 Cor. 10:12). Temperament, no doubt, shields us from much but does not guarantee us from evil. There are sins “we are inclined to” and sins we “have a mind to,” but to all sins, we may “be tempted.” The tendency to do wrong is common to all—Adam, Cain, Noah, David, Solomon, and Judas Iscariot. Self-distrust is helpful for all of us because temptation assails all men.

Please remember to pray for the sick. Mark 16:17-18 says, “And these signs shall follow them that believe; In my name shall they cast out devils; they shall speak with new tongues; They shall take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them; they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover.”

BIBLE SCHOOL CORNER The Harmony of the Gospels and II Samuel

These are the two topics being studied in our Adult Classes, held in our Auditorium. We invite you to be a part of these studies. The New Testament is studied on Sunday morning and the Old Testament is studied on Wednesday night.
