Also, when a Christian re-dedicates his life by repenting of sin and confessing his and through prayer, then a Christian must move forward, and we must forgive those who have repented. Acts 8:22 says, "Repent therefore of this thy wickedness, and pray God, if perhaps the thought of thine heart may be forgiven thee." I John 1:9 says, "If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness."

As we have seen, our Lord instructs us through Peter and Paul to look forward. We must be willing to forgive ourselves of past sins as the Lord has forgiven us. We must press forward toward Heaven, our home!

"But if all prophesy, and there come in one that believeth not, or one unlearned, he is convinced of all, he is judged of all: And thus are the secrets of his heart made manifest; and so falling down on his face he will worship God, and report that God is in you of a truth (I Corinthians 14:24-25)."

“LOOKING FORWARD: PART 2”

BY: JASON GANN

In the September 10th and October 8th editions of the Campaign Courier, we looked at reasons that it is good to look back. These are times that we must look back. In the November 12th edition of the Campaign Courier, we looked at reasons we should look forward. Now, let us look at more reasons to look forward.

Our Lord through Peter instructs us in I Peter 4:1-2 says, “Forasmuch then as Christ hath suffered for us in the flesh, arm yourselves likewise with the same mind: for he that hath suffered in the flesh hath ceased from sin; That he no longer should live the rest of his time in the flesh to the lusts of men, but to the will of God.” Instead of serving one’s self and partaking in sin, Christians must live for God. We should not look back to the world of sin, but rather look forward to the service of God.

Our Lord through Paul instructs us in Philippians 3:13-14 says, “Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before, I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.” Paul had done much wrong. He says in I Timothy 1:15, “This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners; of whom I am chief.” He had made havock of the church, entering into every house, and committing men and women to prison for being Christians before he became a Christian. He consented to the murder of Stephen. He had done much wrong, when he thought he was doing right, but after he became a Christian, he knew God had forgiven him, and he forgave himself. He moved forward as we must do, and not waste time dwelling on the sins for which we have been forgiven.

BIBLE SCHOOL CORNER

Bring Your Bible

Bring your Bible! Acts 17:11 says, “These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so.” As the Scriptures are read in Bible Class, in sermons, and in Scripture reading, we should have our Bible with us, following along with the teacher, the preacher, and Scripture reader.

NEWS

- Thanks be to the Lord for allowing us to assemble today to praise Him! Let us praise Him!
- Sympathy is extended to the family of Mike Gann, a member of the Gassaway church of Christ and one who has been on our Sick List. He served as a Gospel preacher, preaching twice a month for the Sugar Tree Knob congregation in Cannon County. He passed away last Sunday, December 3. Please pray for comfort for his family.
- Let us pray for those who lost loved ones in the tornadoes yesterday and for those who may have been injured.
- The Fruit Basket Work Night will be held this coming Wednesday, following the service. Please plan to help us prepare fruit baskets. If you know of any who would like to receive one, please write their names on the paper about this in the foyer. The delivery of fruit baskets will be our door knocking campaign for this month.
- Congratulations to Ellie Dixon on receiving Beta and 4-H Awards for her school and a 4-H award for the county.
- Congratulations to Allie Gann, Jase Gann, and Sesley Gann for winning Positive Office Referral Awards for good behavior at their school.
- We are in need of restocking our pantry. This week’s suggested pantry item is frosting.
