“A Friendly Church Seeking to Edify Each Other
as We Shine as Lights unto the World”

“And he said, Nay; but as captain of the host of the LORD am I now come. And Joshua fell on his face to the earth, and did worship, and said unto him, What saith my lord unto his servant? And the captain of the LORD's host said unto Joshua, Loose thy shoe from off thy foot; for the place whereon thou standest is holy. And Joshua did so (Joshua 5:14-15).”

“HOW TO TREAT OTHERS”

BY: JASON GANN

The Apostle Paul by inspiration of the Holy Spirit says in Titus 3:1-2, “Put them in mind to be subject to principalities and powers, to obey magistrates, to be ready to every good work, To speak evil of no man, to be no brawlers, but gentle, shewing all meekness unto all men.” Here we are told about how we should relate to those in authority. We also see how we are to relate toward all.

Subject to those in authority. When it comes to those in authority, we are to obey those in authority for the higher powers are ordained of God (Romans 13:1-7). When they tell us to do that which is against God’s Word, we ought to obey God rather than men (Acts 5:29). God is in control. We can disagree with the wrongs of leaders, but we must do so respectfully.

Be ready to every good work. We must be ready to every good work. The Holy Bible equips us for every good work, and we must be ready to do them (II Timothy 3:16-17).

Speak evil of no one. Likewise, we are to speak evil of no one. We are to not blaspheme or try to destroy people’s reputations. Slander is not a part of who we are as Christians.

Be no brawlers. We are to be no brawlers. This tells me that we are to not be quarrelsome. We are to fight the good fight of faith, a spiritual warfare, not a physical one.

Be gentle. We are to be gentle. This means to be fair and mild. We are to be considerate. This is how we are to treat all.

Show all meekness. We are to show all meekness unto all men. We are to be gentle and exercise strength under control. This is a fruit of the Spirit (Galatians 5:22-23).

These admonitions are words that we would all do well to remember in our daily lives. It is no wonder that God through Paul told Titus and us, “Put them in mind,” to do these things. May we do these things, and put others in mind to do them, also!

“End of the Year”

Fellowship Meal

December 12, 2021

Following the Sunday Second Worship Service

The youth will exchange gifts!

Please stay for this last fellowship meal of the year!

SICK LIST

Jaime Ashby	Brian Jones
Deborah Ballew	Davie King
Matthew Ballew	Sandra Malone

Please remember to pray for the sick. James 5:14-15 says, “Is any sick among you? let him call for the elders of the church; and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord: And the prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up; and if he have committed sins, they shall be forgiven him.”

BIBLE SCHOOL CORNER

Question:

What Is Your Favorite Thing about Teaching a Bible Class?

Answer:

from Jason Gann,
Adult Bible Class Teacher -

“My favorite thing about teaching a Bible Class is that I know that what I am teaching is the Word of God, and I am helping people to understand it, and obey it.”

NEWS

- Thanks be to the Lord for allowing us to assemble today to praise Him! Let us praise Him!
- The Fruit Basket Work Night will be held this Wednesday, December 15, following the service. Please plan to help us prepare fruit baskets. If you know of any who would like to receive one, please write their names on the paper about this in the foyer.
- This week’s suggested pantry item are dried beans.
