“For we are the circumcision, which worship God in the spirit, and rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh (Philippians 3:3).”

“TODAY’S ISRAEL AND PROPHECY”

BY: JAMES W. BOYD

Political and religious leaders have advanced a false notion regarding the present day Israel. They are often heard to refer to Biblical prophecies and apply them to the existent nation. Especially do they claim that the Bible promises the land of Palestine to Israel. Israeli people cite the Bible as the basis for their claim to certain territories. They fail to realize that those prophecies have long ago been fulfilled (Joshua 23:45;23:14). To look to the Bible for any word concerning Israel today is to look for that which does not exist. That Palestine would be Israel’s homeland was a conditional promise. Ancient Israel violated the conditions (Josh. 23:15-16). It is a serious matter when the destruction of millions may hang in the balance in a struggle for territory and one side leans erroneously on the Bible for its claim. There is no more reference to present-day Israel in the Bible than there is Guam, Argentina or Dixie. Such notions spring from premillennialism, which is a false doctrine taught by many denominations.
