“A Friendly Church Seeking to Edify Each Other

as We Shine as Lights unto the World”

Serving Since 1923

“Thus saith the LORD, the Redeemer of Israel, and his Holy One, to him whom man despiseth, to him whom the nation abhorreth, to a servant of rulers, Kings shall see and arise, princes also shall worship, because of the LORD that is faithful, and the Holy One of Israel, and he shall choose thee (Isaiah 49:7).”

“LET US STAND TOGETHER: PART 2”
BY: MIKE TINCHER

The Scriptures are clear, plain, and easily understandable, providing we apply the principles taught by Christ in Matthew 7:7-8 of seeking, knocking, and finding what is pleasing and acceptable to God by looking to His word. Especially recommended is Matthew’s account of Christ’s teaching in chapter 19 because, not only does Christ explain His teaching in great detail, but we also see the comprehension of the disciples to Jesus’ teaching. They understood entirely what Christ was saying based upon their comments.

Seeing there is a line drawn on this issue within the brotherhood, it is my prayer that we join together in unity in what the Scriptures teach. We must go back to the old paths on which the church traveled before man twisted its teachings to fit themselves or their situations. If not, we must separate ourselves as was done in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries when the issue of instrumental music in worship divided the church. As radical an idea as this may sound, nature itself shows us what happens when bad apples are mixed with the good. Paul was clear in 1 Corinthians 5:6 when he said a little leaven leavens the whole lump. We can see the same things happening in the church today.

This issue is as much a heaven and hell issue as instrumental music in worship. Let us be firm and strong in treating it as such.

In Ephesians 5:18, we are told, “And be not drunk with wine, wherein is excess; but be filled with the Spirit;”. Let us study God’s Word every day. Let us live as His Word commands, and thereby be filled with the Spirit.
