They are "on fire" for the Lord for awhile, but later, lose their enthusiasm and dedication.

After being "participants," they become "spectators."

Some even develop a negative attitude and criticize much of what is being done. How demoralizing this is to the church, not to mention the fatal judgment awaiting one who remains in such a negligent condition.

In the Lord's kingdom, there is no room for slothfulness, and there is never an excuse for a negative attitude!

Even when circumstances do not permit one to be as physically involved as he or she would like, one's enthusiasm and attitude ought to still be on the positive side.

If you have been spasmodic in your Christianity, here is a message from the one who died for you:

"Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, and do the first works" (Rev. 2:5).

"A Friendly Church Seeking to Edify Each Other as We Shine as Lights unto the World"
Serving Since 1923

"Beloved, follow not that which is evil, but that which is good. He that doeth good is of God: but he that doeth evil hath not seen God (III John 11)."

“DOES THIS DESCRIBE YOU?”

BY: DAVID SAIN

One of the finest compliments that can be given to a Christian is, “You can always count on him.”

Most of us appreciate the attribute of dependability. In business, employers know that it is important to have workers upon whom they can depend, even on a “bad day.” In our social functions, we all know how secure we feel when we have a friend who is “always there for you” regardless of circumstances.

The Bible teaches Christians to be dependable and faithful at all times. Paul commanded, “be ye steadfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord” (1 Cor. 15:58).

Yet, some members of the church are not steadfast. They don’t always abound in the work of the Lord. Instead, they are spasmodic in their Christianity. (Note: Continued on Page 4)

BIBLE SCHOOL CORNER

Hurrying to Bible Class

Children love Bible classes. We see that as our little ones hurry to get to Class once brother Kevin Rowland says, “We will now dismiss for our classes.” Their love for Bible Class is wonderful! They go with smiles on their faces to learn more about God. Bible Classes are times when memories are made. Let us work to do what we can to encourage our teachers!

NEWS

- It is a privilege to assemble before our God to offer praises unto the Greatest of all!
- Sympathy is extended to the family of Winter Odom. She passed away last Sunday, December 13, 2020. Please pray for God to comfort her family.
- Thanks to all who prepared food for the “End of the Year” Fellowship Meal last Sunday. It was a great time of fellowship, and seeing the young people open gifts was enjoyable for all!
- This week’s suggested pantry item is macaroni.
