Paul contended for the faith when he warned the Ephesian elders for three years with tears about apostasy coming into the church through them. He taught that elders ought to convict the gainsayers (Titus 1:9), not coddle up to them and run along with them. Stephen was contending for the faith when he fearlessly preached the truth before the very leaders who had caused Christ to be put on the cross. Plainly he told them the truth, even when they hated it. They considered him their enemy because he dared tell them the truth. He gave his life (Acts 7) contending for the faith.

“A Friendly Church Seeking to Edify Each Other as We Shine as Lights unto the World”

Serving Since 1923

“For there are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ (Jude 4).”

“CONTENDING FOR THE FAITH: PART 6”

BY: JAMES W. BOYD

May I add a further comment to the words of Paul to Timothy. Second Timothy was the last letter the apostle penned. He realized that apostasy was threatening the church. Still he urged, “Preach the word.” When? “In season; out of season,” which means, when people like it, and when they do not; when they want it, and when they reject it. By reproof, rebuke, and exhortation, with longsuffering and doctrine, he was to contend for the faith. Why? Because the time was coming when even brethren would not want it; when brethren prefer what they wanted to what God said they needed.
