“THE SIN OF BEING NEUTRAL: PART 3”

BY: B. C. CARR

Recently, in a forum discussion, I received a question, supposedly from an elder, wanting to know if elders should occupy a neutral position on such things as which version is best to use and the marriage and divorce dilemma. This shows the soft thinking of those who are trying to walk on both sides of the fence concerning truth and conscience), Pilate took water and washed his hands before the multitude, saying, “I am innocent of the blood of this just person” (27:24).

Brother, tell me, was Pilate really innocent? We have for a long time accused this man of being guilty of moral cowardice. This was one of the sins that crucified Jesus. When we allow the Word of God to be trampled underfoot today and show contempt for the blood of the covenant are we any less guilty? It is time for us to get off the fence and take a stand for Truth.

BIBLE SCHOOL CORNER

Wisdom

James 1:5 says, “If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him.” Studying the Bible and praying for wisdom is a way to have it. Wisdom helps us every area of life. Let us fill our hearts with God's Word and pray for him to give us wisdom.
