

(Note: Continued from Page 2)

In contending for the faith, we must uphold every portion of it. We must oppose anything, everything, anybody, everybody, anywhere, everywhere, any time, every time, that efforts are made to minimize or contradict THE FAITH. Especially is this true when the fiery darts of the evil one come crashing against the church from the outside, and the insidious digression bubbles within the church. We are soldiers of Christ and He is the captain of our faith. We are to go forward in this spiritual warfare to liberate souls from the enslavement of sin, and defend the glorious freedom from sin that is in Christ. Some are spectators and not participators in this fight. Instead of being God's gladiators, some are Satan's agitators, undermining like traitors. Faithful men of God must contend earnestly for the once-for-all-delivered-to-the-saints faith.

“CONTENDING FOR THE FAITH: PART 7”

BY: JAMES W. BOYD

JESUS CONTENDED

Jesus set the example in contending for the faith. Those who perceive Jesus as some kind of effeminate, weak, namby-pamby pacifist, a wishy-washy religionist, just do not know the Lord as Scripture reveals Him. He was no shabby revolutionist either. John called Him the Lamb of God (John 1:29) when speaking of Him as the sacrifice for sins. But John also wrote that He was the Lion of Judah when writing of His character (Rev. 5:5). When He confronted error, His zeal ate Him up. He acted decisively. None could doubt where He stood and none could mistake why He stood as He did. When attacks were made on Him personally, He paid little attention to it. “When he was reviled, he reviled not again; when he suffered, he threatened not; but committed himself to him that judgeth righteously” (1 Peter 2:23). But when the message of truth that He preached was opposed, you find no stronger actions among men than those taken by our Lord. Christ-likeness in contending for the faith is sorely needed in the ranks of God’s people in our own day. Too many, who claim to be kind and loving, are just cowards and will not contend for the faith. (Note: Continued on Page 4)
