“A Friendly Church Seeking to Edify Each Other as We Shine as Lights unto the World”

“It hath been said, Whosoever shall put away his wife, let him give her a writing of divorcement: But I say unto you, That whosoever shall put away his wife, saving for the cause of fornication, causeth her to commit adultery: and whosoever shall marry her that is divorced committeth adultery (Matthew 5:31-32).”

“THE BIG PICTURE” BY: JASON GANN

As Christians, we are all Followers of Christ. It is our purpose as Christians to always remember the big picture of this life, which is to fear God and keep His commandments, in accordance with Ecclesiastes 12:13. God tells us that this is the “whole duty of man.” This is what life is really all about, and when we think about life, it is very much the case that in this life courage is needed to live it faithfully as Christ has called us to live it. In fact, we are told, by Christ in Revelation 2:10 to be faithful unto death in order to receive the crown of life. Come Judgment Day, we know that as the last verse of Ecclesiastes tells us, that “. . . God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil.” We all want Heaven to be our home. We want to be in that place described in Revelation Chapter 21, verse 4, where we are told, “ And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.” This is where we want to go. Chapter 22:2 says, “[2] In the midst of the street of it, and on either side of the river, was there the tree of life, which bare twelve manner of fruits, and yielded her fruit every month: and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations.” We want to be in that place where we will never grow old, where the trials, persecutions, and temptations of this life will be no more. We want to be happy forevermore. We want no part in the lake of fire. About it, we are told in Revelation Chapter 21, verse 8, “But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death.” We want no part of this.

Considering that the faithful Christian has the happiest life awaiting and that the faithful Christian life is the greatest life here on this earth, because it is filled with all spiritual blessings, including, include the forgiveness of sins, Ephesians 1:7; the hope of Heaven, Titus 1:2; having Jesus and the Holy Spirit as our Intercessors, Romans 8:26 and 34; having God living within us, II Corinthians 6:16; having spiritual brothers and sisters along with their fellowship, I John 1:7; the ability to pray to God and have our prayers heard, I Peter 3:12; and Heaven in the end, Ephesians 1:11. Let us remember what Philippians 3:14 says, “I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.” Let us live for God each day and remember the big picture of life!
