“A Friendly Church Seeking to Edify Each Other
 as We Shine as Lights unto the World”
 Serving Since 1923

“Whom I have sent again: thou therefore receive him, that is,
 mine own bowels: Whom I would have retained with me, that in thy stead he might have ministered unto me in the bonds of the gospel: (Philemon 12-13).”

“PRESS TOWARD THE MARK, FELLOW LABORERS”

BY: JASON GANN

I am thankful for every preacher in the church of Christ, who faithfully preaches the powerful Gospel of Jesus Christ. I would not try to name each one so that no one is left out, for there is no way that I could name each one. If the Lord wills, I hope that each one has a wonderful day each day he is involved in preaching the Word! I also am thankful for every elder, deacon, and teacher in the church of Christ, who carries out the works prescribed in the Gospel as God has commanded. It is up to us to do our part in fulfilling the mission of the church, which is to make known the manifold wisdom of God (Ephesians 3:10). The church was in God’s Eternal Purpose (Ephesians 3:11). God always knew He would establish His church through His Son, and this He did in Acts Chapter 2. Let us fulfill that eternal purpose for the church we each day we live.

We ought to speak the Truth in love as we make known the manifold wisdom of God (Ephesians 4:15). Ephesians 3:21 says, “Unto him be glory in the church by Christ Jesus throughout all ages, world without end.” Let us give glory to God always. It is through Christ that the whole body is fitly joined together and compacted by that which every joint supplies, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, makes increase of the body unto the edifying of itself in love (Ephesians 4:16). We all have a part to do in fulfilling the church’s mission.

I hope each day we live that we are laboring to spread the Gospel for every day that we do this is a truly wonderful day. As we live our lives on the earth, let us say as Paul said in Philippians 3:14, “I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.”
