The poet has truly said:
I must needs go home by the way of the cross,
There’s no other way but this;
I shall ne’er get sight of the gates of light
If the way of the cross I miss.

I must needs go on in the bloodsprinkled way,
The path that the Savior trod,
If I ever climb to the heights sublime,
Where the soul is at home with God.

Then I bid farewell to the way of the world,
To walk in it never more;
For my Lord says, “Come,” and I seek my home,
Where he waits at the open door.

“Give unto the LORD the glory due unto his name: bring an offering, and come before him: worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness (I Chronicles 16:29).”

“THE WAY: PART 3”
BY: H. LEO BOLES

The Use of the Word

Luke uses “the Way” almost exclusively regarding the speeches of Paul and his life. When Paul started out as a persecutor of Christians, he was determined to punish those whom he might find “of the Way” that he might bring them to Jerusalem. Some years later, when Paul was preaching in Ephesus and persuading the people about the kingdom of God, some of his hearers “spoke evil of the Way.” This caused Paul to turn away from them. Then, again, as Paul was preaching in the same city and condemning idolatry, “there arose no small stir about the Way.” Paul had found something which at one time he had gone out to persecute, but now he preaches with power and stirs up trouble everywhere he goes. This manner of life that Paul and others lived is called “the Way”—“the Way” with a capital “W.” This manner of life was some- thing new in the world and could be described by “the Way,” in so much that it was a new way of living. Christ had taught His disciples to pray for their enemies. This was new to the world at that time. He had taught them to do good for evil and to bless them that persecuted them. This was strange and new to that age. In fact, it is strange and new to our age. The way of life in Christ is the way which God teaches man to live; it is the way that leads to heaven—no one can go to heaven any other way.

- Thanks to all who came to the Tenth Sweetheart Night, which is our special night of honoring all of the married couples of the congregation this past Tuesday. Thanks to all of those who brought food. Also, thanks to all of the ones who helped with this event. We had a good turn-out and a lot of fun! Thanks to all who made it a success!
- Recently our Pantry has been organized with shelves for canned meat at top, vegetables in the middle, and fruit and noodles on the third shelf. This will help us in finding food quickly that we need to distribute.
- This week’s suggested pantry item: lasagna.
