thought upon his name (Malachi 3:16).”

“NEW TESTAMENT WORSHIP IN SONG: PART 1” BY: RUSTY STARK

Music is a powerful thing. It came very early in human existence and has been a part of history ever since. “This is the oldest and most natural of all the fine arts, and therefore is found among all nations, however ignorant of every other art” (McClintock and Strong Encyclopedia). Music is first mentioned in Genesis 4:21. Jubal (the son of Lamech) was “the father of all such as handle the harp and organ.”

Songs or singing were first mentioned in Genesis 31:27. Laban rebuked Jacob for sneaking away and not giving them the opportunity to send them away with “mirth and with songs, with tabret and with harp.” When the Israelites were saved from their bondage in Egypt they celebrated with song (Exodus 15:1- 2).

In the New Testament we read: “Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord” (Col. 3:16). “Speaking to yourselves in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord” (Eph. 5:19).
